THE HAWAIIAN MISSION CHILDREN'S SOCIETY

THE ANNUAL MEETING.

The sixty-sixth annual meeting of the Cousins was a happy gathering of the clans. Never before did so many assemble for the roll-call, and the rivalry between the Judd and Cooke families was exciting. The Judds proved to be so large a family and of such a variety in age and size that the audience insisted that they should go upon the platform to be counted, and cheers and hand-clapping greeted the numbers as they mounted from 30 and 41 to 47. When later the Cookes were also called to the stage it was thought for a time there was a tie. While the re-count was taken one proud father stood out prominently with a beautiful child in his arms, and though that little one did not count for two, the re-count made the number of Cookes 48, and then again came hearty applause.

There were 20 Rices present, 14 Alexanders, 13 from the Lowell Smith family, 11 Chamberlains, 8 from each of the Bingham, Thurston, Forbes, Hall and Castle families, 7 of Dr. J. W. Smith's descendants, 6 Johnsons, 5 Andrews and 5 Clarks, 3 Gulicks, 2 each from the Armstrong, Emerson, Hitchcock, Bond and Bailey families, while the Bishops, Baldwins, Doles, Lyons, Parises and Shipmans were represented by 1 each. There was also present a descendant from the Micronesian Missionary Sturges.

One hundred and fifty-six honor-roll cards were signed at a table near the main entrance, but some descendants entered at another door and failed to register. Next year will be the fifth and last year for these cards, the competition being to attend the annual meeting for five successive years.

The picture-pillar was also a drawing card, for on it were gathered together photographs of all but a few of the sons and daughters of the missionaries—a real reunion of the faces of those who assembled at the Cousins' meetings when the Society was young.

With Mrs. Westervelt at the piano, the precious old hymns, "Blest Be the Tie" and "From Greenland's Icy Mountains," were sung with a will, for President Wilder had thoughtfully provided mimeographed copies for all. Mr. Wilder also reverted to an old custom—discarded of late because of lack of time—in introducing Hawaiian songs. Thanks are due the girls of Kawaiahao Seminary, so carefully trained in enunciation, harmony and expression for those soft, sweet strains that will linger for life in the memory of kamaainas.

The meeting was opened with an earnest prayer by the oldest member of our Society, our revered and loved Cousin, Rev. Orramel H. Gulick. The president gave a short talk, the usual reports for the year were read, discussed and accepted, the collection, $105., was taken, the usual appropriations of about $335 for benevolences were made, the report of the nomination committee was accepted and the election of the following officers was held:

President—G. P. Wilder;
 Vice-President—W. W. Chamberlain;
 Secretary—Mrs. R. W. Andrews;
 Treasurer—L. A. Dickey;
 Recorder—R. W. Andrews.

After the Missionary hymn was sung the benediction was pronounced by Rev. H. P. Judd, secretary of the Hawaiian Board.

The innovation this year was the presentation of "The children of the Thaddeus," collated by the secretary from Daniel Chamberlain's journal and interestingly rendered by the young Punahou Cousins under the efficient direction of Miss Mary P. Winne. Not only were the twenty-nine boys and girls, seated on the platform with their war-knitting, a picture in itself, but it presented a contrast to the story so well told by them of the Chamberlain children, Nathan, Dexter, Mary, Daniel and baby Nancy, on their long voyage around Cape Horn nearly one hundred years ago.

The spacious Hall was decorated with a tracery of vines, the crimson variety of Hawaiian ginger and the grand old "Stars and Stripes" of America.

The Board of Managers' Report by the President.

This has been a very quiet year with no new activities launched by the Mission Children's Society.

Owing to the war conditions, it was the consensus of opinion of the members of the Board that war work should have preference, and that our Society refrain from starting any fresh projects which would necessitate the expenditure of any large amounts of money.

There have been two regular meetings of the Board of Managers and two special meetings during the year. The special meeting of May 4th was called for the purpose of considering the communication from Reverend John Erdman in regard to his proposal of establishing a dormitory for the Hawaiian Bible Students in a portion of the old Chamberlain House. After thorough discussion of the subject, the Board finally carried a motion made by Mrs. Westervelt, that it was deemed wise not to carry forward any plans whatever at the present time.

The kind offer of Mr. Spencer Bickerton to bear all the expense of having a book-plate made for the society, was accepted, the Society to choose the design, Mr. Bickerton to give us 1000 impressions of the book-plate, and he reserves for himself a like number for his collection.

A committee was appointed to ask several artists among the members of the Society to submit designs for the work, and to report at a future date.

On January 20th, we replied to a communication from Secretary Henry P. Judd of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association as to whether our Board would consider the request made to them by the Bishop Museum that the Museum be given the old newspapers then stored in the basement of the Kawaiahao Church, as the Museum was in need of certain copies to complete their files. This request was granted and a committee was appointed to inspect the papers before they were delivered to the Museum.

The Board deemed it advisable to dispose of for cash their holdings in Mineral Products, and the sum of $30. was realized for the sale of 500 shares, which were a gift to the Society from Dr. A. B. Clark.

Through the generosity of our former President, George R. Carter, the roof of the Mission House has been repaired and painted. The floors of the building were saturated with kerosene oil in an endeavor to check the ravages of the wood-borers and the exterior of the house as well as the iron fence were painted.

The Society gratefully acknowledges the gifts of land from the heirs of Levi Chamberlain and from the Mary Castle Trust. This valuable addition to our premises will greatly improve the property of the Mission Children's Society.

It is hoped that the coming year will be one of prosperity and happiness for all the Mission children, and that the plans which were this year set aside on account of war conditons, may be carried out.

Respectfully submitted,

GERRIT P. WILDER,
President.

Honolulu, April 27, 1918.

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT.

EVENTS OF THE YEAR.

The manuscript for the Sixty-fifth Annual Report of the H. M. C. Soc. was sent to the printer the first week in May, 1917, and the complete booklet was received June 7th and mailed the following week. No reports could be sent to our Cousins in Germany. The innovation of sending but one report to each household was made at the suggestion of several members who did not care to be troubled with duplicates. This method will be followed hereafter unless the secretary is informed of the wish of any member to receive the book to which he is entitled.

Our five proteges are making good. Helen Naone will graduate at Kamehameha Girls' School in June, and Isabella Hulu will graduate at Maunaolu. Mary Kawelo and Miriam Lane are doing well at Maunaolu and Paul Kaai not only has merits to his credit at Hilo Boarding School but earned money during Christmas vacation to help pay his expenses.

Among donations received, is the valuable gift by the Chamberlain heirs, of the house lot recently occupied by Levi T. Chamberlain, situated on Kawaiahao Lane and adjacent to the Old Chamberlain House. This is to be known as "The Levi Chamberlain Memorial." From the Castle Estate also came the gift of a lot on Kawaiahao Lane, making a continuous addition to the grounds set aside to the memory of the Fathers. From our former President G. R. Carter funds were received for re-painting the Old Mission House. Mrs. A. F. Cooke gave a silver easter long used on Mother Cooke's table, and Mother Bishop's valuable donation to the Cousins' library was a package of thirteen volumes of "The Friend." Rev. O. H. Gulick has given the beautiful large oak table now in the Old Mission Home and the glass-front cabinet.

A typed copy of a journal, written by Captain Daniel Chamberlain in 1819-20, on board the brig Thaddeus, and donated by his grandchildren to the Cousins' Society through the kindness of Rev. R. B. Dodge of Wailuku, is a great addition to our historical literature.

Some of the desired photographs of the 2nd generation have been donated by Mrs. H. C. Coleman, Mrs. A. F. Cooke, Mrs. Helen Alexander, Mrs. Ellen Bicknell, Mrs. Emma Lyons Doyle, Miss Elsie Wilcox, Miss Dorothy Rowell, Dr. Frances Wetmore, Mrs. C. H. Kluegel, Mrs. O. H. Gulick, the Misses Forbes, G. P. Wilder, Mrs. Swanzy, Mr. and Mrs. Dickey, Mrs. Rhoda Thayer, and Miss Agnes Judd.

The "Cousins' Vault" is now in better shape. The Secretary has spent about three solid months in classifying and indexing the letters, reports and books belonging to the Hawaiian Board. There is much more that ought to be done but first our own treasures should be fumigated, transferred to, and arranged in the vault. Already our seventeen volumes of the Maile Wreath have been carried over, one set of bound H. M. C. Soc. reports and two sets of unbound reports, with a few other papers.

The Picture-Pillar has required time and thought. There was little wallspace for the photographs of the "Sons and Daughters of the Missionaries," and they were stored away out of sight till our Recorder conceived the happy thought of bringing them face to face by families in this cousinly reunion.

"The Pilgrims of Hawaii," the Gulick book of Hawaiian History so long anticipated, has arrived at the opportune time. The centennial celebration of Hawaiian civilization is but two years hence and people are beginning to read up on early history. This work will no doubt be in great demand, for it is filled with first-hand facts, culled with great care by Mr. and Mrs. Gulick from manuscript of the Mission Fathers found among the archives of the American Board, at Boston.

War-work, of course, has occupied heart, head and hand and it is impossible to name those busy in Red Cross, Food Conservation, Liberty Bond and Thrift Stamp enterprises. We are trying, however, to get a list of Cousins and families in active service, which list will be found on another page. We ask the help of all in making the list complete.

For the year ending March 31st there have been forty-five marriages among Cousins, twenty-eight births and fifteen deaths.

Since our year's record ended three cherished names have been transferred from our books to the Book of Life. Three noble men whose lives were woven into the fabric of the civilization and progress of this land of sunshine and palm, have been promoted to realms to us unknown and an abundance of life beyond our ken.

MISSIONARY WORK.

The Nauru Mission, in which the Cousins have been so greatly interested, has been turned over by the American Board to the London Missionary Society because the island of Nauru is now in control of the English. Rev. Ph. A. Delaporte is preaching to a German congregation in Muscatine, Iowa. He has for the past year been reading proof of the Bible which he has translated into the Nauru language from the English, and is attending to its publication.

Rev. Dean Wicks and Mrs. Wicks write interestingly of their work at Tunghsien, China, of the welcome boxes received from Central Union Bible School and Woman's Board, and of their little daughter.

Rev. Rowland D. Cross, formerly a teacher at Mills School, is now a missionary at Tunghsien and his support has been assumed by Central Union Church.

Dan Crawford sent to this city a number of photographs from Africa, including a picture of the new Bible School with its unique architecture, named "Honolulu," because built from funds received here.

Miss Edith Cold, driven from mission work at Hadjin, Turkey, has been teaching this year at Mid-Pacific, and from her we hear direct of the suffering of the Armenians, their deportation and starvation. She knew Dr. and Mrs. Shepard at Aintab and their great work for the alleviation of misery. She is now on her way back to Hadjin.

Central Union is congratulating herself on having secured as Minister Rev. Albert W. Palmer, late of Plymouth Congregational Church, Oakland, and as temporary assistant Rev. J. L. Hopwood. Rev. Palmer spent a few weeks of his vacation with us, and then after three months among the soldiers at Camp Fremont, returned to Honolulu in December as our pastor. He is a young man of rare attainments, pleasing personality and untiring energy, and is welcomed by large audiences, having won the hearts of young and old, especially ingratiating himself into the lives of our boys in khaki and the children of the Bible-school. Rev. J. L. Hopwood, whom we have known and loved at Kamehameha chapel, is an old friend of Mr. Palmer and they work in harmony. Rev. Palmer came recommended by Dr. J. H. Williams, who has so successfully supplied Central Union pulpit for the last year that the people forgot they were without a pastor. A special session of Summer Sunday School was inaugurated by the Religious Education Committee unique in its form and well attended, and musical recitals were held.

The Kalihi Union Church, organized by our Cousins Rev. H. W. Chamberlain and wife, have this year erected a new building. After the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, the church was supplied for a year by Rev. B. T. Sheeley, when a call was made out to Rev. Charles McVey. But at the beginning of the war Mr.

McVey was summoned to the colors, and the church was looked after by Robert E. Stone of Mid-Pacific until early autumn, when a call was accepted by Rev. W. B. Coale, formerly of Lahaina, Maui.

Molokai's great day this year came on Aug. 12th, when the old Hawaiian stone church at Kaluaaha was re-dedicated in the presence of hundreds of people, practically all of Molokai, with guests from Honolulu, Maui and Hawaii. Most of the addresses were made in the Hawaiian language, and the inspiring music was rendered by the far-famed Molokai Chorus. The building was erected in 1835 by the Rev. Harvey Rexford Hitchcock, who had organized the church two years before, and who with his estimable wife, "Mother Hitchcock," lived and labored and was here laid to rest. The repairs—re-enforcing the old rock walls inside and out with concrete, erecting pillars to support the roof, remodeling the platform and windows and repainting—were made under the care of the grand-son, Harvey Rexford Hitchcock. At the end of the morning service a luau was spread for 300 and more guests and later a closing service was held—reception of members, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper and baptism of children, one of whom was the great-grand-child of the first pastor.

Kawaiahao, the old "Stone Church" of Honolulu, severed in January of this year a lifelong pastorate of fifty-five years with our Cousin Rev. Henry H. Parker. Few of us can recall the ministrations of Father Bingham from 1820-1841, Father Armstrong from 1841-1848 and Father Clark from 1848-1862, so that our recollection of native preaching, General Meetings, concerts of Hawaiian song, "Sunday School Hoikis" and gorgeous royal funerals are all inseparably connected with the erect figure and clear, penetrating voice of Rev. Henry Parker. Kawaiahao stone church, with its royal pews and many tablets, will still be a shrine of pilgrimage for passing tourists and returning "kamaainas," but no other voice in Hawaiian speech will so clearly make plain to the old Hawaiian brethren and sisters their duty and the Father's love.

Kawaiahao was, during six days in November, the resting place of the remains of the last Hawaiian monarch, Queen Liliuokalani, and none of the thousands who paid the last tribute of respect to royalty will ever forget the gorgeous decorations, the kahili bearers, the tabu sticks and feather capes; the wailing, the "meles," the soft, sad music as the watchers changed places every two hours during the days and nights of the week of mourning, and the long processions of school-children who came by hundreds and passed around the casket gazing with awe upon the splendor of the scene. The monarchy is past, the last monarch is laid to rest and the retirement into private life of the man who preached before the Kamehamehas, before Kalakaua and Liliuokalani, and by his great "aloha" for them retained the confidence of kings and people through all the troublous times of transition, is very fitting.

Rev. J. F. Cowan, D.D., for ten years a pastor at Kohala, Hawaii, recently spent a vacation on the mainland, gaining health, strength and enthusiasm, and returned, as he said, "to put what strength and years he had left in Hawaii." But very soon a call came to serve his country through the Y. M. C. A. organization in France and he left in February, 1918, for the front.

The Y. M. C. A. of Honolulu has given some of its finest men to go into Army and Navy work, and Mr. A. E. Larimer and his efficient staff are more than busy. They have been putting much work and energy into soliciting funds, building and furnishing the International Y. M. C. A. on Fort street, where will be held classes in the Japanese, Chinese, Korean and Filipino languages as well as English, and where it is hoped leaders may be discovered, trained and sent to the Orient as teachers. The Army and Navy Y. M. C. A., having re-fitted the beautiful tropical Hawaiian Hotel, held their dedicatory services on Nov. 25th. The address was delivered by Evangelist Fred B. Smith, and its broad lanais overflowed with guests.

The Y. W. C. A., our Cousin Mary Dillingham Frear being its gracious and efficient president, has multiplied its activities during the year. The cafeteria with its public practical demonstrations of Food Conservation; the new work among immigrants; the beach-house with its 26 dressing rooms and 400 lockers, its office and large lanai, where the weary working girls may rest, read, bathe and recuperate; and the raising of a budget of $45,000 for the year, ten thousand to be used for war-work here and abroad; these are some of the greater of its new ventures.

The Civic Convention, with its Outdoor Circle in which our dear Mrs. F. J. Lowrey was such an inspiration, outdid itself in establishing a Community Christmas Tree this year. A large fir tree growing in the government yard was electrically lighted; tableaux of the Christ-child in the stable, the coming of the shepherds, and the "wise men following the star" were displayed on the upper balcony of the Capitol Building, and angels with bugles playing "Glory to God in the Highest" appeared at the corners of the roof above. A chorus of 140 voices sang carols, and thousands of spectators, bathed in soft moonbeams, viewed the scene from the Government yard, and King, Richards and Likelike Streets. The whole display was uplifting and educational.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union and Anti-Saloon League are filled with joy at seeing their life-work advancing with leaps and bounds, carried forward by the tide of public opinion, not only churches and schools but clubs of business men and our Delegate Kalaniana'ole all calling insistently for "prohibition." Dr. E. C. Dinwiddie, superintendent of the legislative department of the Anti-Saloon League of the U. S. for nearly twenty years, spent two weeks here, speaking before schools, churches of many nationalities and army camps. Some of the visiting U. S. legislators also aided the cause. Now we rejoice in the fact that President Woodrow Wilson has proclaimed Oahu a "dry zone," the law to take effect on April 10th, 1918.

The Hawaiian Board, carrying out the work of The Fathers, is such a large organization, branching out into so many nationalities, with such a diversity of gifts and variety of advance, that we can only refer to the summary as given in its 1917 year book, "Magnifying His Work," where Rev. Frank Scudder tells of thirty years progress in Japanese evangelization here, Rev. Norman Schenk of the Chinese advance, Rev. Akaiko Akana of work among the Young People and Rev. J. P. Erdman of the Hawaiian work, of the Christian Workers' Institute, and of the Bible Training School which during the last fourteen years has sent out 142 alumni. The Hawaiian Board is looking forward two years to the celebration of the Centennial of the arrival of the first missionaries on the Brig Thaddeus.

A religious Education Campaign was conducted at Lihue, Kauai, beginning in September with house to house visitation under Rev. J. M. Lydgate, Miss Elsie Wilcox, Mr. W. H. Rice and others, and closing with a two weeks' campaign in October conducted by Rev. Geo. Laughton of Hilo, and secretaries of the Hawaiian Board.

A wonderful sunrise Easter service was held by the Hawaiian Board. On the summit of old Puuowaina (Punchbowl), facing the city and the sea, nature has formed a vast auditorium and in front of it placed a mound or rostrum for the speaker, chorister and the band. This amphitheater was lined with people—white-robed singers, khaki-clad soldiers and the gray-uniformed Kamehameha cadets, with here and there pink and gold and crimson sweaters like brilliant flowers among the gray-green foliage of a typical, tropical hillside. Scores of heads were silhouetted against the clear blue of the sky and the rising sunbeams.

The approach was from the inside of the crater, green after the winter rains, and along the winding driveway automobiles were parked and the great procession of worshippers filed up to the summit. Then came the burst of band music—"Gloria," "Pilgrim Chorus," and "Holy City," and after that the harmonious blending of a thousand voices in the grand old hymns, "Come, Thou Almighty King," and "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." Responses followed, an earnest prayer by Rev. Akaiko Akana, and a two-fold message by Rev. Albert W. Palmer—"Life Eternal" and "Weeping may endure for the night, but joy cometh in the morning"—the dawning of an Easter after the war. Then again the chorus of praise, "Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord" and the benediction.

All these vivifying activities have been going on quietly under the great war-cloud that hangs like a pall over the world. But under the war-cloud is growing up an army back of the soldiers, whose weapons are Food Conservation, Red Cross Relief, Liberty Bonds, Thrift Stamps and War-gardens, a mighty army, growing daily and invincible because it enlists the school children with their faith and zeal, the Boy Scouts, and the mothers and wives with their sacrificial love and their trust in the mighty arm of Jehovah, for with Longfellow we can say:

God is not dead; nor doth he sleep!
The wrong shall fail,
The right prevail,
With peace on earth, good-will to men.

SCHOOLS.

We had decided to omit—for the first time—the topic "Schools" this year that space might be saved for a list of our brave service men.

Then came a most interesting letter from our Cousin, Mrs. Grace P. Haven of Maunaloa, telling of their June commencement with its addresses, music, athletics and first aid, and of the four graduates, two of whom entered Mills' High School and the others the Normal and Kamehameha Schools. She told of a Thanksgiving entertainment consisting of music and recitations, and of the three new teachers—Miss Fanny Bradford, who was for eight years a missionary in Africa and who besides her school duties has a large Bible class of High-School girls at the Baldwin Memorial Church, Miss Imhoff, who has for her recreation the superintending of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Baldwin Memorial Church; and Miss Hill, who not only has charge of the school Christian Endeavor and is doing splendid work for each grade in Home Economics, but is Superintendent of the Junior Department of the Baldwin Memorial Sunday School, and is a very active member of the executive committee of the Local Conservation of Food. The Maunaolu girls are members of the Junior Red Cross and give an hour of their sewing-class time, once a week, for Red Cross work.

Mid-Pacific graduated 39 pupils, 10 from the High School, 14 from Kawaiahao eighth grade and 15 from Mills eighth grade. Last year was the twenty-fifth anniversary of Mills School. Many changes and improvements have occurred in both schools during the year.

The Hilo Boys' Boarding School, whose principal, Levi C. Lyman, has been abroad with his family during the year, has prospered under the management of Acting Principal Jernegan, having nearly two hundred in attendance.

Our protege at Kamehameha Girls' School, Helen Naone, will graduate in June. Miss Newton, the principal, suggests that it might be a good investment for us to continue our appropriation of $25 a year and thus help her take a course at the Normal.

Kohala Girls' School is still working and waiting for the completion of a sum sufficient to erect the new building. $40,000 was the first estimate of the cost, but war prices for labor and material have nearly doubled the estimate. The building is needed, however, and should be built before September, 1918.

Punahou rejoices over the return of its president, A. F. Griffiths and principal of Preparatory Department, C. T. Fitts. For the coming year Ernest T. Chase, principal of Punahou Academy, will have a year's leave of absence to go to France for Y. M. C. A. work, and L. P. Howland will be acting principal. Mr. Fitts will be principal of the Junior Academy and Miss Mary P. Winne will be principal of the Punahou elementary school. She will have complete charge of Charles R. Bishop Hall and the first six grades. Godfrey L. Bergman will continue to have charge of the boarding department and Miss Margaret E. Clark will direct the music school. President Griffiths will remain in charge of all the schools.

Lahainaluna graduated fifteen young men in June, and the fact that C. A. McDonald had decided to remain as principal of the school met with universal satisfaction on Maui.

The Summer Normal School enrolled two hundred students.

The new concrete Maui High School building cost over $30,000—$5,000 being donated by each of six members of the Baldwin family.

The Public Schools of the Islands, on Apr. 1, 1918, have 980 teachers employed. The Normal School graduated fifty-six young people, most of whom received appointments.

THE ROLL-CALL OF COUSINS.

We wish you could all see the Picture-Pillar with its dear faces, so long stored away in boxes. On this pillar are thirty-six double frames in which the photographs of the sons and daughters of the Hawaiian missionaries are arranged in family groups. A number of pictures have been brought in recently but we wait still for a few faces to complete the family reunion.

During the coming year we hope to collect photographs of the third generation—the grand-children. Please send them without further solicitation, as it will be impossible to write individual letters. We would like them to be of cabinet size or smaller, and the name should be written below the picture, with the date when the photograph was taken.

The Information card should note all changes and especially give latest news from the boys in the service.

Alexander (W. P.).—Mr. W. D. Alexander writes from San Francisco. Deacon Arthur C. Alexander, Civil Engineer, is a very busy man, and Mrs. Alexander, as chairman of the Woman's Committee of Food Conservation on Oahu, finds greatness thrust upon her as speaker and organizer, but like the multitude of mothers, the giving of herself, her time and talents is as nothing to the giving of her sons, Wm. P. Alexander, Dept. Naval Communications, Honolulu, and A. De Witt Alexander, U. S. N., Yale Station, Ct.; later, Ensign A. DeWitt Alexander in command of a sub-marine chaser.

Miss Agnes Alexander returned from Japan full of enthusiasm regarding the "signs of the times," remained in Honolulu for a few months and left for California.

Dr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Alexander have been made happy by the arrival of a daughter, Patricia Alexander.

Mrs. S. T. Alexander has been very ill at her home in Oakland, and Mrs. John Waterhouse has spent much time with her mother.

Mrs. Helen S. Alexander came back to Hawaii in May, 1917, and has since visited Maui and Hilo. Miss Helen A. Alexander, because of the falling off of tourist trade, has been obliged to curtail some of the multifarious enterprises so popular at Laniakea, giving up the Gift-Shop and presenting to the Red Cross the proceeds of the sale of the toys and gifts.

C. F. Alexander is in Portland, Oregon, and vicinity, getting out spruce lumber for aeroplanes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dickey made a short visit to Honolulu in January, where they were met by their son, Judge Lyle A. Dickey, from Kauai. Mrs. James Dole invited some of her mother's friends to a "Hoover Tea," where they enjoyed a delightful reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Dole had spent the summer on the Coast. The Merrill boys form quite an orchestra with their piano, violin and cello playing; but the latest acquisition, whooping-cough, does not add to the harmony. The whole band of kamaaina Cousins would like to congratulate Cousin Charley and Annie Dickey on the celebration of their golden wedding, an account of which by request has been summarized by their son, Judge Lyle A. Dickey.

"May 29, 1917, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Dickey celebrated their golden wedding by a reception at the home of their son C. W. Dickey at Piedmont, Cal.

They were married at Indianapolis, Indiana, May 29, 1867, at the home of Mrs. Jane Graydon, an aunt of Mrs. Dickey, being a sister of Mrs. William P. Alexander. Only one of those present at the original wedding could attend the golden wedding, Andrew Graydon, a cousin of the bride, but there was a great gathering of other friends; children, grandchildren and many relatives. Two children, the oldest and youngest, and one grandchild came from the islands for the occasion, Mrs. V. Belle Wallace, sister of Mr. Dickey, came from Chicago, and Berkeley, Oakland and San Francisco furnished many old island friends.

Among the decorations was a wire bell filled with golden coreopsis beneath which the golden-wedding pair received their friends. This very bell had been similarly used at Haiku, Maui, in 1881 at the golden wedding of Father and Mother Alexander and again in 1910 in Honolulu at the golden wedding of William D. Alexander.

Many presents from friends now widely scattered indicated the love and good-will gathered during the fifty years. A scroll signed by many in California and Hawaii was one. A Sunday-school class of Chinese boys that Mrs. Dickey had taught for many years in Fort Street Chinese Church who are now in many schools and colleges, including Cornell University, University of Illinois, University of Pennsylvania and University of Missouri, presented a set of spoons and an original "unrhythmical poem". Two other presents that might be mentioned in these days of food conservation and knitting for soldiers were a golden-hued pair of bed socks knitted by the giver for Mr. Dickey and a lei of fifty gilded potatoes with a golden onion as a pendant.

Mrs. Ellen A. Weaver presented this lei with the following appreciation:

"The golden sun climbs up the sky to celebrate your golden wedding day and golden wishes fill the air and brighten all the way.

"Kamaainas ring the changes on the passing years while tiny bells ring out the pilikias.

"Ring out the old—ring in the new, glad years of hopes assured and joys to be fulfilled.

"Fifty small potatoes—jewels of the soil—fix their gilded eyes upon you in a lei of loving admiration for your pilgrimage so faithful to this day of jubilation; and pendant onions breathe tearful memories of the long ago and dear old Punahou, with congratulations radiant with hopes of coming time, and all that you will do to make this earth more gladsome in your way to 'Lani no maikai' while we follow singing in full chorus of aloha that echoes from Hawaii to Kauai:

"So say we all of us—so say we all."

(This lei has since been planted in the Dickey back yard in Piedmont and is growing finely.)

A nephew, Wallace M. Alexander, and Lyle A. Dickey, the oldest son, spoke words of happy memories and congratulations, and another link with the two other Alexander family golden weddings was the singing by a neighbor to the tune of Auld Lang Syne of part of a song that had been originally composed by Rev. James M. Alexander for the golden wedding of 1831 and sung at both that and the one of 1910."

Andrews (L.).—Mr. Wm. Andrews is still in business in New York City. Misses Mabel and Ethel are busy with Red Cross work and soldiers' outfits, and their sister Evelyn, Mrs. Burcher, who lives near, with her little folks. Bernice Pauahi, Mrs. Fernow writes from Milwaukee, Wis., "My husband, B. E. Fernow, was lieutenant in the Engineers Reserve Corps but gave up his commission to continue naval work for the Industrial Reserve. My brother, Thomas Harvey Skinner Andrews, is a first lieutenant, 105th Field Artillery now at Spartanburg, S. C." Lorrin Andrews, Esq., is in Honolulu and with him is Lorrin Andrews, Jr., a sophomore at Punahou Academy.

Robert Wilson Andrews, nearing his eighty-second birthday, is happy in his duties as Recorder of the H. M. C. Society, enjoys all the meetings of the Engineers' Association, superintends the Maemae Sunday School and takes great pleasure in the three weekly church services at Central Union Church. Carl B. Andrews, on July 31st, 1917, received his commission as Captain, Engineer Officers' Reserve Corps, but has not yet been called to active duty, and continues Civil Engineer of the O. R. & L. Co.

Mrs. Mary E. Nott, through the kindness of her daughter, Annie Brigman, spent a very happy summer taking lessons in Art. She and her daughter Sarah have been busying themselves with Red Cross knitting, and Capt. Brigman, with them while recovering from an illness, helped them with their war-garden. Miss Mary, with her little machine, is able to reach more and distant pupils. Mr. W. Hough (Elizabeth's husband) has a government position in Chicago but did not enjoy the blizzards of the last cold winter. Mr. and Mrs. Lorrin A. Nott have a beautiful little girl Edith Andrews Nott, born Sept. 20, 1917.

Mr. W. L. Hardy has been appointed postmaster at Waipahu.

Mrs. Maggie Hardy Dean has had charge of her three grandsons while their mother was rustivating after an illness. Their father, Mr. H. T. Hoskins, was appointed Superintendent of Construction at Camp McArthur and the family may join him soon. A little son, William Melville Dean, was born in Lihue Feb. 21, 1918, to Mr. and Mrs. D. Wm. Dean.

Armstrong (R.).—Mrs. Ellen A. Weaver writes, "There have been several changes in the Armstrong family. The marriage of our standard-bearer, Daniel Williams Armstrong, to Eunice Taylor, the daughter of General W. O. Taylor, proprietor of the Boston Globe—and a jewel of a girl—according to Dan's letters—gives cause for gratitude that such a treasure has come into the Clan Armstrong. The arrival of baby Alice Howe is another happy event in our family history. Mr. Arthur Howe, the father, is making a record in training boys in Loomis Institute, Windsor, Conn. Lieut. Dan Armstrong has much of his father's "ginger" and writes that he feels "bottled up" because he is not called to the war zone where his mother is doing good service under the War Council of the Y. W. C. A. in France. Dan is at present an instructor in engineering in the Navy and is doing his best to train our noble defenders to win this war for Humanity and Democracy.

My youngest daughter, Clarisse Jones, is spending her days in Red Cross, Belgian Relief Work and Canteen service for "our boys" and knitting with the army of knitters for the comfort of those who are in the trenches. Her husband, Morgan A. Jones, is a one-dollar-a-year man and puts in long hours shipping cots, letter paper, boxing-gloves, tobacco, blankets, books, etc., etc., to the Y. M. C. A. huts in France and Russia, and writes he was never so happy in his life—trying to do his bit. Little Sherman, whom you will remember, is a big, broad-shouldered, husky boy, captain of the school football team, editor of the school paper and a good scholar, leading his form in scholarship, and is a decided patriot,—hoes potatoes for Uncle Sam, drills small boys for Scout practice and is too busy to write often.

Mrs. Henrietta Weaver Fangel is doing her bit with her pen and knitting needles. Her book, "Flame and the Shadow Eater"—the result of her studies in Japan—finds favor in literary circles in New York. I am wondering if it is in the Honolulu library.

My pleasurable duty is to make my sister Jennie as comfortable as possible. She is a "shut in" and very frail after her long years of tussle with the asthma. Berkeley proves a good climate for her, and with a clear head, good eyes and good memory, she reads much and ponders over the world-war chaos, comparing it with her civil-war experiences, and never loses her faith in God's overruling power.

There is a "kamaaina" colony in our neighborhood—Kate Atherton and Sarah Flaxman, enjoyable neighbors, round the corner; Hattie Clark and Mrs. Shaw with her; Miss Carrie Gilman and Miss Yarrow near by; Mrs. Bettis and her daughter and Mrs. Augustus Knudsen down the street, and Mrs. Dickey, the Alexanders and Mary Nott not very far away. We trust to polish up the links of friendship, reminisce, and air a little Hawaiian. Jennie and I enjoy a visit with Mary Nott occasionally—ever the same sweetly serene, dear soul! How the minutes fly when we chat by the open fireplace. This afternoon with Kate Atherton, Mrs. Shaw and Miss Sarah Flaxman, I went to the Oakland Auditorium to celebrate, with 10,000 patriots, the birthday of Geo. Washington and see 3,000 school-children form themselves into the American flag."

Mrs. Millie Beckwith Hair is one of the very active workers in Red Cross and Food Conservation on Maui.

Miss Mary Weaver spent a delightful vacation in California and she and her sister are now at Punahou.

Bailey (E.).—Mr. William Hervey Bailey, Jr., was married, Nov. 20, 1916, to Miss Luena Lillian Jackson. Mr. Bailey and his wife were in Honolulu for a short time during this year, combining business and pleasure. Mr. Bailey also remembered the Society through the treasurer.

Mrs. James Bailey is living with her youngest son, Austin, in their new home on the hill, 116 Walnut Street, Berkeley. Another son, L. Grant Bailey, is in business in Honolulu. We hope to meet him.

Mr. George Bailey, son of Horatio Bailey, has so far recovered from his serious illness as to take charge of his mother's business while she came to Honolulu to recuperate under the care of her daughter, Mrs. May Zumwalt. There have been great changes in May's family. Mr. J. S. W. Zumwalt died in Colusa, Cal., on October 27th. On April 4th, 1917, the son, John Luther Zumwalt, was married, and on Feb. 2d, 1918, another wedding at her mother's home in Honolulu, made the youngest daughter, Madeline, the wife of Lieut. Charles Andrew McGarrigle. Miss Mae was married March 30th to Mr. Romeo A. Bienvenue, and only Helen remains with her mother.

In June, Miss Caroline, daughter of C. A. Bailey, wrote a card telling of her father's recovery from two serious operations in San Francisco, of her mother's illness and of her own preparation for Library Training School.

Baldwin (D.).—Dwight Van A. Baldwin, son of Erdman D. Baldwin, graduated from Yale in June, 1917, completed a course in training camp and is 2nd Lieutenant, 302d Infantry, Camp Devens, Mass. Harold M. Baldwin and Herbert D. Baldwin, sons of Mr. L. M. Baldwin, are at the Presidio. Clarence R. and Jessie C. Baldwin are juniors at Punahou Academy, Clarence being president of his class. Cedric P. Baldwin and Paul F., sons of Benj. D. Baldwin, are freshmen and Cedric is a member of the Freshmen Council. Douglas E. Baldwin is head luna of Makaweli Plantation. Arthur Douglas Baldwin is 1st Lieut., 164th Field Artillery Brigade, U. S. A.

H. A. Baldwin and F. F. Baldwin were the purchasers of the island of Lanai, with the purpose, it is said, of making it a cattle ranch. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baldwin and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baldwin are very busy in Red Cross and other forms of war service.

The Henry Perrine Baldwin Memorial Church of Paia, Maui, was dedicated on the first and second Sundays in September. The building, of Gothic architecture with a Norman tower, is built of lichen-covered stone which with a roof of slate gives the effect of age. The inside plastered walls and ceiling are of a soft brown; the hand-carved woodwork has the same rich hue but is of a little darker shade, and the carpets and cushions give the impression of quiet elegance. The organ is of the best, given as a memorial to Leslie and Jared Baldwin by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Baldwin, and the classical music was ably brought out by the sweet-toned instrument. All this was uplifting, as were the sacred words read from the new pulpit Bible donated by the grand-children. The ministers of all the Maui Union churches took part, Rev. Henry P. Judd brought greetings from the Hawaiian Board, Rev. J. H. Williams of Central Union offered the prayer of dedication and Rev. George Laughton preached the sermon on, "The Church and Its Mission." The whole service seemed an anthem of praise and honor to the God of H. P. Baldwin, the man whose consecrated life had inspired his children's gift.

A week later a continuation of the service, mostly in Hawaiian, was held, where precious memories were recalled, and touching tribute paid to the beautiful Christian character, wonderful sympathy, and marked ability of this quiet leader of men, Henry P. Baldwin. The audience at the first meeting gave nearly $750. as a thank offering, which was sent to the Armenian Relief Fund. Over $200, received at the second meeting, was given to the Hawaiian Board.

Bingham (H.).—Lieut.-Col. Hiram Bingham of Yale has been appointed "Head, Aeronautical Training School, U. S. A.," and is located at Washington. His ability as an executive officer was proved in his long and perilous journeys in South America, and now he is needed in planning for twenty-two thousand planes and the training of 100,000 men as pilots. $640,000,000 has been appropriated for this department.

Louis La Rue Sutherland, eldest son of Mrs. Clara (Moseley) Sutherland of Honolulu, has enlisted and his address is "Co. A, 29th Engrs., A. E. F., via N. Y. C." Frank Sutherland was graduated at the Oregon Agricultural College in June, and was married in November to Miss Mildred Manuel of Oakland, whom he brought to the Islands. Their home is at Ulupalakua, Maui.

The eldest daughter, Mrs. A. H. Jones, has a little daughter, Celia, born Feb. 9th, 1918.

Miss Pearl Sutherland was married April 28th, 1917, to Prof. Edwin H. Ideler, musical director at Punahou. Mr. and Mrs. Ideler have together added greatly to the pleasure of music-loving people. Miss Mae Sutherland for a time with Miss Helen Alexander at Laniakea, has gone into business on Fort Street. The youngest son, Charles Moseley Sutherland, is a Junior at Punahou Academy.

Miss Katherine Reynolds was with her brother in St. Augustine, Fla., but by invitation of friends is spending the winter at Miami, Fla.

Bishop (A.).—Two dear quaint pictures (framed) of Mrs. Jane Bishop Hillebrand and Dr. Hillebrand have been donated by their daughter, Mrs. A. C. Alexander. Mrs. Alexander hopes to visit Dr. and Mrs. Dalton and their little Thelma, soon, and perhaps get other pictures to frame with Dr. Sereno Bishop and his wife.

Mrs. Helen L. Dalton writes, "My heart is ever longing for 'That land of love, Hawaii'."

"Mother Bishop's" ninety-second birthday was remembered by many friends who found her deeply interested in the war and the questions of the day, and especially interested in the Woman's Board, the Cousins' Society and olden times. The latter seemed as vivid as if she had seen and taken part in them but yesterday.

In April of last year, Mr. Jonathan Shaw went to the Mainland for his health, accompanied by his wife. They followed the same route they had taken on their honeymoon trip thirty-four years before, visiting Mr. Shaw's people in Minnesota, Dr. Bishop in Oregon and other friends, and enjoyed the trip immensely. But Mr. Shaw was a very sick man and not long after his return, on June 22nd, he passed away. Mrs. Shaw was very brave but the great strain and loss was too much for her and she has been recuperating with friends in Berkeley, returning in March.

A quiet but beautiful wedding ceremony took place in the Shaw home when, amid artistic decorations of pink and white, the dainty, flower-faced Jessie became the bride of Mr. Thomas A. Fisher, a worker at the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. The Misses Ruth and Margaret Shaw are efficient teachers in the Normal School.

Dr. John S. Bishop is giving all spare time to Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. work.

John Egbert Bishop graduated at Clark University, Worcester, in June, having specialized in chemistry. Securing an appointment for research work at the U. S. Arsenal at Dover, he made a flying visit to his home, Forest Grove, Or., where he spent twenty-four hours and then returned to Dover, taking with him as his bride, Mrs. Margaret (Jones) Bishop.

Bond (E.).—Dr. Benj. D. Bond and family spent Christmas vacation at Olaa. They had with them their son Howell of The Guardian Trust Co., Honolulu, and Miss Alice from Kohala Girls' School. Mrs. B. D. Bond has been appointed head of the Woman's Branch of Food Conservation on Hawaii. Miss Alice, we hear, has taken up a homestead on Hawaii. Kenneth and Douglas were home for summer vacation from Michigan Univ., Ann Arbor, Mich. B. Howell Bond has joined the U. S. Naval Reserve.

George Bond, whose health had been failing since July, passed to the larger life on Nov. 24th.

The Misses Caroline and Julia Bond sent a donation of $20 to the Society early in the year, and also some photographs for the Picture Pillar.

Wm. Bond writes from Michigan of the intense cold, the coal shortage and scarcity of sugar. His eldest son, nineteen years old, is at Ann Arbor and Wm. Jared and Frank Lewis are at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Bond welcomed a little son, Robert Elston Bond, on July 16th.

Mrs. Bicknell's large family has again grown small. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien (Ellen Bicknell) and lively son, have moved to Haiku, Maui. Mrs. Story's little girl, Gertrude, has gone to live with her Uncle Joseph in Michigan, where she is enjoying her first cold weather. Her brother Willie is at the Military Academy.

Castle (S. N.).—Mrs. Harriet Castle Coleman has kindly given for the Picture Pillar photographs of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Castle, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Castle, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Castle, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Castle, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Castle, Prof. and Mrs. Mead and a photograph of herself with Mrs. Mary Castle Hitchcock. Mrs. Marks also called with photographs. Miss Ethelwyn Castle is in Chicago.

Prof. Wm. R. Castle, Jr., of Harvard was made Head of the Bureau of Casualties, American Red Cross, Washington, and in preparation has been to France and back. Mr. A. L. Castle has received appointment as general field director of the Red Cross in the Territory of Hawaii; and Miss Beatrice Castle is Head of the Hawaiian Allied Relief Committee with its Hospital Supply Rooms on Miller Street, Surgical Dressings at the Capitol building, Refugee Clothing at Central Union, and Units at other churches and branches on other Islands—now merged into the American Red Cross.

We withdraw this page to tell, not of the activities but of the homegoing and rest of one who has done so much for Hawaii, Mr. James B. Castle. Beautiful tributes are being paid to his memory but ours must come in the next report. Our sympathies are with Mrs. Castle and with Mr. Harold Castle and family.

Prof. and Mrs. A. M. Tozzer have moved temporarily from Harvard to Denver, Col., where Mr. Tozzer is connected with the aviation service, being a member of that Aviation Section, U. S. A. Mrs. Tozzer is donating time and service to Red Cross work.

Mr. Henry Mead is at a school of aerial observation at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. Mrs. Mead's services have been accepted at the front and she is in France. Mrs. Mead was made a member of the Cousins' Society too late to be recorded in this year's list of new members.

Chamberlain (L.).—The last of the second generation of Chamberlains passed away on Sept. 6th, when Levi Tenney Chamberlain died at the home of his nephew, W. W. Chamberlain of Honolulu, who had shortly before returned from a visit to the mainland.

The Chamberlain heirs have since made to the Cousins' Society the very handsome donation of a lot, the property of the late Levi T. Chamberlain, situated makai of the old Chamberlain House. It is to be "The Levi Chamberlain Memorial."

Rev. H. W. Chamberlain is doing his bit for our country on a farm near Hastings, Mich. This was made advisable because Mrs. Chamberlain's health had broken down a second time under the arduous duties of a minister's wife in Chicago.

Dr. Warren C. Ives, about to graduate from Chicago Medical School, expects to go when called to the front.

Charles G. Ives, Jr., the youngest son, has been in training for a year, in Texas. Esther was married, more than a year ago, to Mr. Wm. S. Spooner, and Alice, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Helen Chamberlain Ives, graduated from a kindergarten college last June. She is teaching now—not in kindergarten—at Santa Barbara, Cal.

Mr. Bertram Aiken of Makawao, Maui, who enlisted in one of the National Guard regiments of Indiana while away at school, returned to the mainland to join his company but has not yet been mustered in. He is now in Cleveland, Ohio.

Chamberlain (D.).—The heirs of "Capt." Daniel Chamberlain, through the Rev. R. B. Dodge, of Wailuku, have sent to this Society a copy of a very valuable journal written by Capt. Chamberlain on board the brig Thaddeus and continued for a few years after the landing. This journal gives some interesting details not mentioned in the official journal.

Clark (E. W.).—The marriage, in September, of Miss Bertha Clark, only daughter of Mrs. Charles K. Clark, was quite an event in Berkeley. The groom, Mr. Gilbert Maxey Thomas, is an electrical engineer, a graduate of the University of Texas, and holds a master's degree from the University of California. Miss Clark will be remembered as musical instructor for a time at the Kohala Girls' School. Miss Jean Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Clark, was born July 14, 1917, and congratulations are hereby extended to her parents and to her brother, Montgomery Clark, hoping they may become Cousins.

The death of Mr. Luther Severance on July 8th was a great surprise and shock to his many friends. Mr. Severance was born on June 1, 1836, and therefore had passed four-score and one birthdays, and in 1914 celebrated a glad golden wedding. He was always so hale, so happy and young in spirit that no one thought "his years were well nigh run."

Albert B. Clark, son of the late Dr. A. B. Clark, passed through the training school at Schofield and is now 1st Lieut., R. C., 1st Infantry. Caroline H. Balding is in the Senior class at Punahou.

Stafford L. Austin has been graduated as a 2d Lieutenant from the officers' reserve training camp at Camp Sherman. He was a graduate of Punahou, a student at the College of Hawaii, and had attended Cornell University. Mrs. Eugene Horner, nee Marian Austin, and family are living in Hilo. Violet Austin is assistant librarian at Cooke Library, Punahou. Margaret Scott Austin graduated at Punahou last year, 1917. In the May Friend is an interesting article by Rev. A. S. Baker telling of his travels and preaching circuits which sounds somewhat like those of the early missionaries, except that he traveled in his 20th Century Ford, while their speeder was the faithful staff.

Coan (T.).—From Titus Munson Coan, "Dear Cousins of Hawaii:

"Many thanks for the annual report of the Mission Children's Society; it is the most interesting periodical of all that I receive. Would that I could attend this Spring meeting with you!

Far from me is Hilo Bay,

And far is Puuowaina hill!

But there my heart is still at play—

Oh call me Kamaaina still!

"Yours with aloha mau."

Cooke (A. S.).—J. P. Cooke returned from the Coast in November and is able to give part of his mornings to business. Mrs. Cooke is giving what spare time she has to Red Cross, for like every mother who has a boy "over there," her heart and sympathies go out to the soldiers. Platt Cooke, Jr., enlisted early in the war and has been through thrilling experiences while at the front in the ambulance corps. Later he passed the rigid examinations as an aviator and is now in Air Service, A. E. F., Paris, France. Mr. Wm. G. Cooke visited in Honolulu in August.

Mr. Theo. Richards, carrying the financial burdens of the Hawaiian Board, and Mrs. Richards, president of the Woman's Board and a very important member of the Board of Education, had a most joyous celebration of their silver-wedding, June 29th. It was none other than the marriage of their daughter Ruth to Lieut. Frank E. Midkiff, former professor at Punahou Academy. This was an out-of-door wedding at 8 p. m. under the trees in front of the Richards' home. The decorations were green vines in profusion, Easter lilies, pink begonias and pink gladioli. A musical program of sweet song and violin melodies preceded the marriage and as the strains changed to the wedding march the bridal party came down the broad steps led by the little ribbon-bearers, Polly and Herbert Richards. The bride in silvered white, long veil and orange blossoms with her shower bouquet of white orchids and sweet peas, the maid-of-honor in pale green and the bridesmaids in dainty pink, made a pretty picture for the minister, the groom's father, and the waiting friends on the lawn below. J. Atherton Richards has passed through the course of intensive training and is 2nd Lieut., 2nd Inf.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan (Laura Atherton) now reside in Manoa. Mr. Jack Guard is treasurer of Central Union Bible-school, a position occupied for twenty years and more by W. J. Forbes. Miss Violet Atherton, for some time assistant librarian at Cooke Library, Punahou, went to San Francisco in September.

Mr. Frank Atherton recently returned from the Philippine Islands, being one of a committee of three to investigate sugar plantation prospects there. Miss Kate Atherton and Miss Sarah Flaxman are in Berkeley.

Mrs. C. M. Cooke is prominent in Food Conservation, Red Cross and Y. W. C. A. work, opening her beautiful home for musicales and recitals for Red Cross benefit. Mr. C. H. Cooke is Chairman of the Local Board No. 1 of Registration.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Cooke have a little daughter, Phoebe, born in November. Mrs. Cooke is head of the Food Commission on Molokai. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooke spent the month of July at the Volcano. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cooke, with their two little daughters, Elizabeth and Theodora, have moved into their beautiful home on Nuuanu Street, where a third daughter has come to them.

Mrs. A. F. Cooke accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Melanphy, and children, to Hawaii in July. Mrs. Cooke has been very successful in collecting Cooke photographs for the Picture Pillar. Miss Margaret Cooke is receiving great praise for the efficient manner in which she conducted the vast choruses of song at the children's Carnival exercises at Punahou, on Feb. 21st.

Damon (S. C.).—Of Mr. S. M. Damon's family we find Mrs. Henry Damon among the first to take up Red Cross work. Miss Esme spent her summer vacation on the Islands.

Of Mr. Edward Damon's family, Mr. Fred Damon, of the Bank of Hawaii, has built a new residence in Nuuanu Valley. Mr. Maurice Damon is Captain the National Guard, N. Y., in U. S. service. Miss Ethel Damon belongs to the Nurses' Aid, en route to France, and Mrs. Julie Damon Giffard and son returned in September after four months' vacation in San Francisco. Mrs. Giffard has brought the much-desired photographs of her father and mother for the Picture-Pillar.

Mrs. Frank Damon, and Miss Vera who was a successful kindergarten here, left in September for the East, where Bernard is at Harvard, and Daphne has just graduated at Simmons' College. Bernard is in the Freshman Glee Club, and is Lieutenant in the Harvard Training Course. Dr. Frank Putman of Lihue, who married Violet Damon, since connected with Fort Shafter Hospital as chief surgeon, has been commissioned Major; and Cyril Damon, who was manager of the Real Estate Department of the Guardian Trust Company, took the training course at Schofield and became 1st Lieut., Co. F, 1st Infantry, Schofield Barracks, but has since been relieved from further duty with the 1st Infantry and is detailed to Department Headquarters.

Dibble (S.).—From Mrs. M. Grace P. Haven of Maunaolu, Paia, Maui, we have these items of news. "My aunt, Clara Dibble Inch, and her daughter Agnes Inch are keeping house in a very pretty apartment on the Board Walk in Atlantic City. They spend the summers at Ocean Grove, New Jersey. My sister Mary, Mrs. James L. Drum, is very happy in the new home at 2509 Cedar Street, Berkeley. My sister Clara, Mrs. C. P. Cowperthwaite, is living at 1471 California Street, San Francisco; her son Pierpont has enlisted in the marine service and is in training at Mare Island.

Dimond (H.).—Mr. Albert Waterhouse, with his wife and two children, are now in Honolulu.

We hope Mrs. Nellie (Waterhouse) Wood will pardon a few quotations from a private family letter. Our excuse is that we are all Cousins and deeply interested in the story. "Early in May Allyn (her only son) decided that it was his duty to leave college work for the present and "do his bit" for his country. He made application for a place in the Officers' Reserve Training Corps, and entered Madison Barracks on the fifteenth of that month. 2500 young men took the intensive training there for three months. In August 1200 received commissions and Allyn became a second lieutenant. Arthur (Mr. Wood) and I had the privilege during those months of visiting the camp three times and it was a wonderful experience. In August Allyn had a furlough of ten days and then was ordered to Camp Dix in New Jersey for service in the National Army. His duty will probably keep him there till early spring and then he will go to France. From the first we have honored Allyn's attitude, and our own wish has been to "do our bit" even if it meant sacrifice. Through the summer we were both very busy in Red Cross work in and around Middletown. Arthur was chairman of the local organization and served on the New York state committee, while I have been interested in the rural work, but with the fall and winter we realized that a great opportunity faced us with responsibility. . . . Arthur went to New York and saw men on the War Council and was given work in the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Dix for the present and I am to serve in the Hostess House that the Y. W. C. A. are putting up at the camp. With this in mind I took the course at Silver Bay—ten days' work with women who have been in Mexico and have seen the need and kind of work necessary near the camps. A week ago we closed Homewood for the winter and here we are at a little inn at Brown's Mills, three miles from the camp. Arthur's work began at once, as the drafted men are coming in very rapidly at the camp, and he goes over in our little car at eight o'clock every morning and returns after six in the afternoon. My work will begin soon and will keep me busy.

A. B. W. says if the Germans could catch the spirit of the men as they are coming in now they would consider themselves defeated right now."

Mrs. Helen Kinney Simpson of Alma, Colorado, reports the birth of her first grandson, John Bethuel Simpson, on April 16, 1917.

Dole (D.).—Judge Dole and wife left in April, 1917, for a long vacation on the mainland. After meeting ten of "the boys" of his class at their jubilee reunion at Williams College and spending three months at Mrs. Dole's former home at Castine, Maine, and visiting other resorts, they gladly made their way back to Hawaii in time to escape the rigors of a northern winter. It is said that Judge Dole is writing a book of personal reminiscences, which will be awaited with keen anticipation by the Cousins.

The George Dole family is well represented among our country's noble defenders. Judge Charles S. Dole of Lihue, Kauai, belongs to the 3rd Engineers, Co. C, now at Schofield Barracks. Wm. Herbert Dole enlisted in the Home Defence, New Jersey. Norman E. Dole is at the Presidio, Cal., Wilfred Dole is running a lumber mill at Aloha and turning out lumber for ships. Kenneth Dole is in the Medical Corps and Elwin Dole has enlisted in the National Guard at Riverside, Calif.

Dwight (S. G.).—George K. Dwight, who enlisted in the Gas and Flame Corps, 30th Eng., and died of pneumonia at Annapolis, was one of the first of Hawaii's sons to give his life for the principle of "Right versus Might." He was not a member of the Cousins' Society but was eligible to become so as his grandfather was Samuel G. Dwight of the 12th Company of missionaries. A brother of George, Joseph Lovejoy Dwight, was married Dec. 31, 1917, to Miss Rosalie Kanoalani Holt of this city, and a sister, Miss Ellen K. Dwight, was married in October to Mr. Alfred K. Smythe. Mr. Charles Dwight has recently been licensed as a lawyer.

Emerson (J. S.).—When the Germans first overran Belgium, Mrs. J. S. Emerson said, "My work is laid out for me till the war is over. I must help Belgium." She gave lectures; established "Tag Days" selling the Belgian colors; collected a Christmas present and sent it to Belgium's queen for her destitute children; secured god-mothers for lonely Belgian soldiers and Belgian prisoners in German camps, and sent aid to Refugee Camps. Thus the $500 she hoped to raise grew to $13,000 and more, and her Belgian mail sometimes numbers 200 letters. Letter-writing occupies many hours a day and she keeps knitting in different rooms so that not a minute be lost while caring for her household. In all this she has the approval and aid of her husband and of her son, Oliver, who is a senior in Punahou Academy.

Dr. Justin Emerson retired from practice some time since, and with his wife spends the winters in Florida, returning for the summer to the home of his son Paul and little grandson Justin, Jr. Philip L. Emerson is an officer in the U. S. Navy, stationed near Philadelphia, inspecting submarines (March, 1918). Ralph P. Emerson is Camp Librarian for about 20,000 troops at Camp Sevier, S. C.

Arthur W. Emerson, son of the late Dr. N. B. Emerson, exhibited at the Fifty-first Annual Exhibition of the American Water Color Society of New York City (Feb. 6th-March 1st, 1918). Also at the Murray Hill Art Gallery, Fifth Ave., N. Y., and in an art exhibition in Providence, R. I.

A letter from Rev. O. P. Emerson to Treasurer Dickey gives the names and addresses of the five of his nine nephews in their country's service and says he is proud of them. He says, "Notwithstanding the dominating interest in the great struggle for human freedom, Hawaiian interests concern me deeply. I am fulfilling a long-cherished wish to arrange my father's and mother's missionary letters and papers and to make a more careful classification of my collection of achatinellidae.

Forbes (C.).—Deacon W. J. Forbes after more than twenty years as treasurer of Central Union Bible School, has resigned. Having charge of the church records and the finances of the J. B. Atherton estate is quite enough to make a man dream figures.

Mrs. Forbes is very active in Food Conservation and Y. W. C. A. work, as well as being Superintendent of the Primary Department of the C. U. Bible-school and an officer in the Women's Society of C. U. C. Frederick is an active Boy Scout in the 8th grade at Punahou Preparatory, and Theodore is a Corporal in Co. A, Cadet Officers at the Punahou Academy, and an instructor in Scout activities in the Preparatory School.

Green (J. S.).—Mrs. Harriet (Parker) Green, though Time has crowned her life with four-score years and more, seems very hearty and happy with her children all about her; Mr. Henry W. Green, a collector; Miss Carrie, a librarian at the Library of Hawaii; Miss Emeline as mistress of household food conservation; Mrs. May Green Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Thayer not far away. Mrs. Wilcox, after eleven years as devoted and efficient Superintendent of Kawaiahao Bible-school resigned in December and is busying herself with all manner of useful things before taking up another all-absorbing work.

Mrs. Laura Green, though still the shadow of her former self, was able last summer to enjoy a week at Kahala beach. She was able also to sit long hours at the funeral services of our late Queen Liliuokalani. She has recently moved to Manoa, where she will be near many old friends. Her nephew, Frank C. Green and wife are in Oregon, while his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Green, at their home in Connecticut are very busy with food-conservation—canning very extensively. Little Walter Junior, three years old, in his soldier khaki suit and big pockets, lends his aid.

Gulick (P. J.).—Dr. Halsey Gulick's family is represented in the war by E. Leeds Gulick, son of Rev. Edward L. Gulick, who was for a time in the Ambulance Corps in France but has returned to enter the Aviation Corps. Pierre Leads Gulick, also, son of Rev. Sidney Gulick, has gone to France in the Eng. Corps. Mrs. Jewett of Berlin writes that Admont Gulick Clark, associate professor of Pathology in the medical department of Johns Hopkins University, was married in Portland, Maine, to Miss Janet Howell, daughter of Prof. Howell of Baltimore.

Luther Gulick, son of Rev. Sidney L. Gulick, was married June 16, 1917, at Fall River, Mass., to Miss Helen McKelvey Swift.

Mr. Grover Clark, Professor in Chicago Univ., passed through Honolulu in March, 1918, on his way to visit his parents in Japan. He was married about a year ago.

Dr. John T. Gulick, at the age of 86, is strong and vigorous, and enjoys long walks as well as car rides, but failing eyesight makes his cane a very constant and dependable companion. Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Whitaker with their three little children are at Paradise, California.

On May 19th a few friends met at the Pearl City residence of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Whitney to help "Orramel and Annie" Gulick celebrate the sixty-second anniversary of their marriage. The wedding day of these Cousins is especially interesting in a sentimental way, for they were married at a Cousins' meeting and the golden wedding took place twelve years ago at Cousins' meeting under the golden shower on Mr. Richards' hospitable lawn. We wish an account of this long, varied, useful, happy wedded life could be put in print, but volumes could not tell it all.

Mr. Gulick's "Pilgrims of Hawaii" is now on the market. It is a book of great historical interest, filled with first-hand items told by the missionaries themselves and gathered by Mr. and Mrs. Gulick through months of searching among the musty archives of the American Board at Boston. Just at this time, as the Centennial draws near, when people are brushing up old memories and searching old histories, these original records will prove invaluable.

Hall (E. O.).—Great changes have taken place in the Hall family this year. Early in the year Mrs. W. W. Hall accompanied her sister-in-law, Mrs. Van Cleve, to the mainland. Here in September the sister sickened and died, and Mrs. Hall, after spending the winter with her son, was sent home in care of a nurse and is still very ill. Fortunately she has her two daughters, Charlotte, one of the secretaries of the Y. W. C. A., and Mrs. Florence MacIntyre, to see that she has every care. Miss Hall now has a position in Bishop Trust Co.

Mr. Philip Hall was married on August 26th to Miss May C. Gilmore of Oakland.

Mr. P. C. Jones celebrated recently the sixtieth anniversary of his arrival on the Islands. Mr. E. Austin Jones and family are in Honolulu, Mr. Jones occupying his former place in Brewer & Co. His mother, Mrs. Belle Jones, and his three sisters returned in the summer from their long sojourn on the mainland, Miss Helen having graduated at Smith's College. Miss Catherine's engagement was announced before her return to Smith's in September, and on Nov. 24th she was married to Mr. Russell Lowell Richards, assistant paymaster U. S. A. Miss Margaret entered Palama Settlement work as athletic director, but before the New Year the trustees reluctantly accepted her resignation and she was married on Jan. 26, 1918, to J. Howard Worrall, purchasing agent of the Pineapple Company. Miss Helen was chosen superintendent of the Junior Department in Central Union Bible-school. In September she became a teacher of swimming at Punahou and later took up the study of wireless as a preparation for war work.

Mrs. Gartley and Mrs. Lewis are prominently engaged in Y. W. C. A. work, Red Cross and in Food-Conservation. Misses Eleanor and Ruth Gartley are also active in Red Cross work, and in these days of short engagements it might not be amiss to mention that of Miss Eleanor to—, “Married, March 18, 1918, Talmadge Wilson, M. D., to Miss Eleanor Gartley.”

Hitchcock (H. R.).—H. R. Hitchcock 3rd. is now 2nd Lieut. in the regular army. He completed eight months of strenuous service with a battery of field artillery from Akron, Ohio. He then went to the training camp at Fort Benj. Harrison, Ind., where we heard from him as awaiting orders to the school at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, to undergo a course of intensive training. He was very enthusiastic. The latest report is from France, 1st Lieut., 14th F. A., A. E. F. His brother William C. Hitchcock is in the Princeton Aviation School.

Of David Hitchcock's family, a grand-son, David Townsend, is in the regular army, 3rd Engineers, U. S. A. His sister Mrs. Almeda Townsend Goss has a little son, George Edward Goss, Jr., born at Manhattan, Kansas, on Sept. 26, 1917. The father is in France as physical director of U. S. troops.

H. Harvey Hitchcock, son of D. Howard Hitchcock, graduated at Punahou in June, 1917, and is now at Cornell. His brother Joshua Dickson is a Junior at Punahou.

Hyde (C. M.).—The death of Mrs. C. M. Hyde at Ware, Mass., took from Hawaii one of Honolulu's most devoted friends. She loved these islands only as those can love who have poured out their best years in its service. She had great influence for good here and we miss her strong personality even yet. Mrs. Hyde had but recently sent the photograph of her son Charles in a group with his two charming little daughters.

Mr. Charles Hyde and family had been making their home with his mother for some years, but recently Mr. and Mrs. Hyde returned to France, leaving the daughters with their grandmother.

Mrs. Holloway brought Mary Irene to Honolulu with her while the elder daughter makes her home with Mr. Henry Hyde during the absence of the parents. Miss Ruth Hyde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hyde, was married Mar. 22, 1918, to Mr. Chester Hanford.

Mrs. Irene Ii Holloway was in the East at the time of Mother Hyde's death and brought the ashes home, where a few old friends gathered to place the urn in its flower-lined resting-place by the side of Dr. Hyde, her mother and her sister.

On July 5th, 1917, Mr. and Mrs. George Ii Brown welcomed a daughter, Zadok White Brown. Francis Hyde Brown, who had been in the employ of Castle & Cooke, left for France in the Ambulance Corps in August.

Ives (M.).—Mrs. H. P. Ives, after giving some changes of address, says, "None of our sons are within the age limit for enlistment with the exception of the youngest (Herbert). He has a wife and child dependent on him or he would be in the ranks today. All the daughters are doing their "bit" in Red Cross work and in every way possible, as are we all.

Johnson (E.).—Miss Frances Johnson, still occupying her home at the quiet, restful seaside resort, "The Peninsula," has with her a niece, Miss Frances Bindt, her comfort and stay as well as an efficient teacher in the Pearl City schools. They insist upon keeping with them Rudolph Bindt's youngest son, a dear, bright little child of less than two years. Mr. Bindt's oldest son, Henry, has now but one more year at the school for the blind in Berkeley, and when home for his vacation last summer was full of plans for the future.

Mr. Douglas M. Fyfe is electrician at Pearl Harbor.

Judd (G. P.).—The large Judd family has kept the secretary busy recording items. There have been eight marriages, four births and many enlistments.

"Aunt Lizzie" Wilder, very feeble in her eighty-seventh year, quietly awaits the summons to the Homeland. Her daughter Helen visited her as usual this year. Mrs. Laura Wight and Miss Ella returned at the severance of diplomatic relations from a seven years' residence in Germany. Miss Ella went back to the Atlantic Coast and on Sept. 8th married Lieut. Frank W. Lagerquist, who sailed immediately for Europe and she returned to Hawaii. Frank Hastings Wight is on the cruiser St. Louis, and the address of his brother, Lieut. Samuel Gerrit Wight, is 166 Depot Brigade, Camp Lewis, Wash. Our president, Gerrit P. Wilder, has been busy with the Questionnaire and Red Cross. Mrs. S. G. Wilder and daughter have just returned from England and France, where they were active in War Relief Work, sometimes near the front nursing the wounded. Mr. James Wilder's play for the Boy Scouts, "The Knights of the Square Table," has received high praise.

Mrs. Emily Cutts Judd is now on Oahu, and her daughter, Miss Pauahi, absent for nineteen years, has returned with her niece, Miss Emily Catherine Judd. Mrs. Swanzy's eldest daughter, Miss Nora, was married on April 11th, 1917, to Mr. George Young Bennett, now living in Hilo. Miss Rosamond's marriage for April 6, 1918, has been announced. Lieut. Charles Judd Farley joined the Ambulance Corps early in the war and went to France. His brother Arthur Francis Farley is drilling in the Yale University unit.

In the Dickson branch there have been three weddings—those of Joshua Pratt, Dickson J. Nott and Miss Helen Pratt. Scott B. Pratt, Jr., is 1st Lieut., Co. D, 1st Infantry. His brother, Joshua Dickson Pratt, was married April 14, 1917, to Miss Marion Claudine Grignard of N. Y. City. His father, Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, went to Washington in May to attend the annual National Health Conference, and was appointed presiding officer for the coming annual meeting of 1918. Mrs. Pratt accompanied Miss Katherine, who graduated with honors at Punahou in June, on a visit to Joshua and his bride. Katherine remained at Smith College, where her sister Hester has been for two years, and Mrs. Pratt returned in September.

Frederick Dickson Nott was married April 11th, 1917, to Miss Eloise Wichman. Helen Louise Pratt, daughter of Helen Dickson Pratt, was married, on June 25th, to Mr. Rudolph George Schaaf, Jr.

The A. F. Judd branch have determined to be first in the roll-call of Cousins and to this end have recorded four births during the year. Dr. and Mrs. James R. Judd have a little daughter, Alice Louise Judd, born March 1st, 1918. Dr. Judd has repeatedly delivered lectures on France and the war, and in that way has raised a goodly sum for the Red Cross. Mr. and Mrs. Allan W. Judd have returned to Crockett, Cal. They have a third son, born March 11, 1918. Mrs. Sophie Judd Cooke's little daughter, Phoebe Cooke, was born Nov. 12th, and Lawrence McCully Judd, Jr., arrived on Nov. 26, 1917.

Rev. H. P. Judd and other members of the Hawaiian Board are already planning for the great celebration of the arrival of the first "Pilgrims of Hawaii." Miss Agnes E. Judd has busied herself with Red Cross and Liberty Bonds, and has recently prepared a record of Dr. G. P. Judd's living descendants, finding 106 in all.

In the Carter branch, as in the Dicksons, there have been three marriages. John Galt, son of John R. Galt and Agnes Carter Galt, was married June 19th, 1917, to Miss Eleanor Crehore of Cohasset, Mass. They are living at Onomea, Hawaii. C. L. Carter Galt is at Yale.

In July Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Carter returned from their two years' stay on the Atlantic Coast. On Sept. 22 Miss Phoebe, the younger daughter, became the bride of Mr. Vivian Oxenham Dyer, son of Maj. and Mrs. John E. Dyer of London. Then Mr. and Mrs. Carter returned to New York City with Miss Elizabeth, who was married there, Oct. 20th, to Washington Everardus Bogardus, Ensign, U. S. Naval Reserve Force. Mr. Carter is at the head of the Alien Enemy Vigilance Committee, and of the second Red Cross drive.

Kinney (H.).—Upon H. W. Kinney rests heavy responsibilities in the educational development of the children of Hawaii.

He has during the year made trips to Japan, to the mainland and from island to island in securing teachers and looking after the needs, progress and other interests of schools.

Mrs. Selma Kinney and Miss Maud are in their new bungalow in the Spreckels' Annex.

Lyman (D. B.).—Hon. F. S. Lyman is enjoying life in his home in the Crescent City with Miss Ellen Lyman as loving companion and home-keeper. Miss Lyman is a prominent worker in the church and Woman's Board of Missions, and in the Red Cross and branches of War Work in Hilo.

On Oct. 22, 1917, Dr. Frances A. Lyman left his busy life of mercy to suffering humanity for a rest in the Homeland. Mrs. Lyman will reside with her son, Francis A. Lyman, Jr., who is on a plantation at Makaweli, and Howard remains at Punahou Academy, where he is doing well in his studies.

Mr. Frederick S. Lyman, Jr., visited his brother on Kauai during his illness and later accompanied the ashes to Hilo.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi C. Chamberlain and family are motoring through the States, Miss Kathryn having graduated at Punahou Academy last June.

Mrs. Lyman, wife of Ernest E. Lyman, one of our Board of Managers, went to the Coast in November to meet her sister, Miss Dayton, who had spent the year on the mainland and was returning to become a bride.

Mr. and Mrs. McCluskey (Esther Lyman) are living at Lihue, where Mr. McCluskey is in charge of the Kauai High School.

Henry J. Lyman was married Sept. 5, 1917, to Miss Frances Thompson.

Norman K. Lyman, who was a member of the last Legislature, is a recruit for the Signal Service.

Adj. David B. Lyman of the Salvation Army, Kohala, Hawaii, visited in Honolulu in June.

Albert K. Lyman is Maj. Engr. Corps, U. S. A., and is an instructor at Petersburg, Va.

Lieut. Charles R. B. Lyman is in U. S. Infantry, Regular Army.

Lewis T. Lyman is in the Officers' Reserve Corps, Co. K, 2nd Inf., Fort Shafter.

We cannot let this Report go from the Islands without the mention of the passing from earth, on April 14 of our honored Cousin, Judge Frederick S. Lyman of Hilo.

Lyons (L.).—Mrs. Emma Lyons Doyle, a member of our Library and Publication Committee, spent some months in Hilo with her sister, Mrs. Richardson, from which visit she returned looking much rested and refreshed. Since her return she has been made treasurer of the Woman's Board of Missions. She has just brought us a beautiful copy of a picture of her father, Curtis Lyons, also a photograph of Dr. Albert Lyons.

Paris (J. D.).—The death of John D. Paris on Jan. 17, 1918, was a great loss to his many friends, especially to the Hawaiian people. He was born, and lived, with the exception of four years at Punahou, in the house where he died. He talked the Hawaiian language fluently, understood the natives and had great influence with them, giving good advice, wise counsel and, when needed, substantial relief. When a member of the Legislature as senator and representative under the monarchy he was the originator of many laws providing for schools, roads, etc., and for half a lifetime he was treasurer of the Kahikolu church at Napoopoo—the church his father built of lava rock in the early fifties.

Miss Ella Paris spent two weeks in Honolulu at Easter time and made arrangements to have pictures of herself and brother copied for the Cousins.

Parker (B. W.).—Rev. H. H. Parker has been appointed by the Legislature to prepare a new Hawaiian Dictionary, the Andrews' Dictionary being long out of print. It is well he has something so absorbing to occupy his time and thought, or the reaction from the work, care and responsibility of a 54-year pastorate might prove anything but a comfort and rest. Mr. Parker is to be congratulated first upon the long pastorate, then upon the release from the pastorate, and lastly upon this appointment by the Legislature.

Miss Mary Parker spent some weeks at Kahala beach, in the early summer, and by swimming and sea-bathing recalled her early youth in Kaneohe waters. Miss Parker also attended the royal funeral services of her friend Queen Liliuokalani.

Rice (W. H.).—The death of Rev. Hans Isenberg on Jan. 5, 1918, was greatly mourned, for he was universally respected, and among those who knew him well, greatly beloved.

At Sierra Madre, May 15, 1917, a real welcome awaited the arrival of little Dora Jane Isenberg. In September, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rice Isenberg and daughter returned to Honolulu. Mr. Wm. Henry Rice is in charge of the Registration of Aliens on Kauai.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rice, we are told, have set out thousands of trees—whole hillsides—with flowering trees and shrubs, these in time to rival the Isenberg forests which are said to contain more varieties than any other Hawaiian lands, all planted under the direction of Rev. and Mrs. Hans Isenberg years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rice and children spent the summer at Kailua, their Oahu beach home.

Philip Rice, Esq., is now 1st Lieut. R. C. 25th Infantry. Mrs. Philip visited in Honolulu while Mr. Rice was in the training camp.

The Moiliili Playground, given by her heirs as a memorial to Mother Rice, is proving a great blessing. The ground was set aside, equipped with swings, ladders, slides, etc., and a fund provided for its maintenance by the Isenbergs, Rices, De La Vergnes and Cookes. At the dedication Mr. Clarence Cooke made the dedication speech, Mr. W. H. Rice, who is always at his best among children, told them in a happy way that this was given them in memory of his father and mother who labored here as missionaries in the early days. Mrs. Hans Isenberg then by winning words won them to unite in adopting this little motto,

“Let us be happy, let us have fun,
Let us be kind to everyone.”

Then the 600 or more children were treated to cornucopias of ice-cream—all they could eat—and went away happy.

Richards (W.).—Let us quote from a note received from Prof. Hubert Lyman Clark, Museum of Comparative Zoology, Cambridge, Mass., a grandson of Rev. Wm. Richards, who is, with his son William, keeping up the high standards of the Richards family.

“There is no news of myself to report, but you will be interested to know that William has just graduated from Phillips Andover Academy, with high honors (one of 11 seniors in the Honor Society). He was awarded the prize in Bible, and shared with another boy first prize in Greek. He is 16 years old but will be 17 in September when he enters Amherst College. He is ‘doing his bit’ this summer raising potatoes.” A later notice tells of the death of Mrs. Clark, mother of Prof. H. L. Clark, who was our oldest living Cousin.

A note containing a check was received by the Treasurer from Miss Emily Williston, daughter of Lyman Richards Williston, telling of the death on Dec. 13, 1916, of her mother, Mrs. Lyman Richards Williston. This was recorded in last year’s Report. She also tells of a third son, Samuel Williston Calkins, born to Helen Richards Williston Calkins on June 21st, 1917.

Rogers (E. H.).—Miss Eva Sunter is teaching at Papaaloa, Hilo, Hawaii. No word has come from the Maui branch or from the mainland members of the Rogers family.

Rowell (G. B.).—Dr. Herbert Stolz is at Cody, New Mexico, in the 109th Sanitary Training Camp.

Miss Elsie Rowell was in Halifax at the time of the terrible explosion. She had started home from a visit to Halifax, but, returning for a lost handbag, was fortunately present to care for the injured and look after the rescuers who returned from searching through the night in the storm, tired, hungry and with clothes frozen on them.

Alice Marion Rowell, who had been for some years working in the Bohemian Settlement, Chicago, was married Dec. 26, 1917, to Mr. Edward Zbitovsky, now in charge of the Settlement. They will live near the University of Chicago, as he is studying for his Ph.D.

Ruth’s husband, Mr. Sanborn, has not yet enlisted. Miss Olive is at Wellesley, and Miss Dorothy is busy with Red Cross and other work in Honolulu.

Ruggles (S.).—Mrs. Frances Loomis has sent an old letter, written in 1823, and some old accounts which we place among the archives. We wish she had also sent news of herself and her family. Those interesting grandchildren must be almost grown. We would like to know all about them.

Shipman (W. C.).—Miss Carrie Shipman is assistant to Miss Richardson, head of American Red Cross at Hilo. Miss Florence is teaching in the Castle Kindergarten. Herbert Shipman expects to enter the army.

Smith (L.).—Mrs. Lowell Augustus Smith—Clara Benfield Smith—is at present making her home in California.

Mrs. B. F. Dillingham's stately figure is not so often seen in public these days, for her husband and her home need more and more her genial happy presence. However, the Cousins and the Woman's Board—societies of her first love—depend upon her as they have ever done, and at a recent meeting of the Woman's Board she gave a touching impromptu tribute to our dear departed Mrs. Hyde.

Mrs. W. F. Frear, as president of the Y. W. C. A., has this year put her strength and wonderful personality into the working out of its many problems, just as she put herself into the Community Christmas Tree, Religious Education and Civic Reform. She combines the rare faculty of seeing visions with the tact and ability to cause them to materialize. Miss Virginia is at school at Kent Place, a preparatory school in New Jersey.

Mrs. Erdman, busy with church, home and maternal duties, has music for a recreation. Mr. Erdman as head of the Hawaiian Bible-school and with the care of the Hawaiian churches has had added responsibilities since the resignation of Rev. Parker from Kawaiahao church. Mr. H. G. Dillingham is one of our Board of Managers.

Since the close of our records, on April 1st, Mr. B. F. Dillingham passed within the gates.

Smith (J. W.).—Of the Hartwell branch of the Smith family, A. W. Carter has resigned from the management of the Parker ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Sorenson with their little daughter, Charlotte, are in Honolulu. (April 16th—Since the close of our entries Mr. Sorenson has gone to the front at the call for men to go at their own expense, and Mrs. Sorenson accompanied him to the mainland.) Miss Bernice was among the many who gave lenses to the navy to aid in the war against submarines.

Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Hedemann have received into their home a little son, Frederick Ferdinand Hedemann, Jr. They are early training him in patriotism and love of country by opening their spacious home to musicales and a jitney sale for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Mrs. Alfred H. Smith returned to Honolulu in the fall, after a year spent among friends. Miss Alice, after graduating at Punahou and Normal schools, finished a course at Columbia University in 1916. She then did physical training work in high and primary schools, also supervisory work for teachers, at Seneca Falls, and is now engaged as instructor of physical training of girls and teachers in the high schools of Syracuse, N. Y. Her brother, Raymond W. Smith, and family reside in their beautiful home on Makiki Heights.

Bits of news caught from Pasadena tell of the resignation of Mr. Gerald Waterhouse from the superintendency of the George Junior Republic after seven years of close application; of a baby, Ruth Janet, born to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Waterhouse; of a son to Dr. Waterhouse of Koloa, and of two weddings. Miss Edith was married June 22, 1917, to Mr. Thomas Black Reed, and Mr. Glen Waterhouse, who is located at George Jr. Republic, was married near the same time. Robert was busy with his studies and expected to spend the summer in Philadelphia. Rev. Paul Waterhouse and family are on their way from work in Japan to Pasadena for a vacation. His father, Mr. Wm. Waterhouse, meets them here.

Of W. O. Smith's family, Mr. Clarence W. Smith and Mrs. Smith are in Rome deeply interested and active in Red Cross and Relief work, while Mr. and Mrs. Lorrin Smith are on the Harold Rice ranch at Kula, Maui, where, during the year, Dec. 19, another little son, Stanley, came to their home.

Thurston (A.).—Mr. and Mrs. Lorrin A. Thurston left in October for a visit on the mainland, where Miss Margaret had preceded them. Lorrin P. Thurston, their son, after a summer vacation spent in Honolulu and Waikiki beach, entered Yale and is now taking advantage of the military training. He took first place in three successive swimming contests, the 50-yard swim, the fancy dive and the 100-yard swim. Mr. Robert S. Thurston has for ten months been occupying a subagricultural experiment station on Kauai, but business calls him frequently to other Islands.

Miss Mary Winne, associate principal of Punahou Preparatory, was chairman for the committee that worked out the wonderful Community Christmas Tree. She is now stirring up the young Cousins of Punahou to an interest in the early history of civilization on Hawaii, preparatory to the celebration of the Centennial of the arrival of the first "Pilgrims of Hawaii." Miss Jane Winne has charge of the music at Punahou Preparatory. Mr. James Winne, in the merchandise department of Alexander & Baldwin, has been elected a director in Catton-Neill Co, to succeed T. M. Church, now a Captain in the Army.

Mr. George Kluegel is Chief Clerk, Hardware Department of Theo. H. Davies & Co., Honolulu. Miss Pauline is a Freshman in Punahou Academy. Miss May T. Kluegel is teacher in a Practical Arts School, Los Gatos, Cal.

Tinker (R.).—A note from Mrs. Mary W. (Tinker) Harvey says, "Are you wanting the name of anyone in our tribe who has enlisted in his country's service? I can report one greatgrandson of Reuben and Mary Tinker—Donald G. Weatherup, Battery C, 307 Field Artillery, Camp Dix, Wrightstown, New Jersey. Donald is only in training but may be ordered away any day. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Weatherup of Jamestown, N. Y.

Van Duzee (W. S.).—Miss Cyrene O. Van Duzee, born in the Castle Homestead, Honolulu, in 1840, and for thirty years a missionary in Persia, had the misfortune during the past cold winter, to slip on the ice and break her right arm. She says, "It is quite the fashion!"

"Raymond S. Kidder, the son of my youngest sister, 28 years old, and a lovely Christian young man, belongs to the "Pershing Headquarters Regiment." My brother's youngest child and only son enlisted in the army for auto repairing and electrical work. He is 22 years old and a Christian."

Wetmore (C. H.).—A handsome photograph of Dr. Frances Wetmore was sent to us a short time ago, with the promise of more pictures for the Picture-Pillar—those of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Deacon.

Mrs. (Catherine Wetmore) Deacon writes, "We sold our ranch at Davis, Calif., in March, 1917. I have just returned from a visit of nine months in the New England States, having spent most of the time in Maine, but visited relatives in Massachusetts, and my husband's relatives in New York. While in Maine I was with my sister Lucy and her husband, Charles S. Lewis, who are spending the winter in Florida. Aloha nui to my fellow-members of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society.

Whitney (S.).—Mr. H. M. Whitney is still in Honolulu with Brewer & Co. Mrs. Emma (Whitney) Goodale spent some months on the mainland, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Catherine Goodale Warren, wife of Maj. Rawson Warren, now at Camp Stanley, Texas, and her son Holbrook Goodale, who entered the military academy at Annapolis. She returned from Washington in December.

Miss Caroline E. McCall writes from Saybrook, Conn.: "I have no news items to report, as I am the only one left of our family and spend my days very quietly in the home left me by my mother, next door to the dear parsonage where I was born, and where I passed a happy childhood."

God bless the Cousins who are serving and sacrificing. We are all longing for the day when men shall turn to the Lord in righteousness and when their hearts shall be turned toward one another in love and unselfishness."

Miss Marie Pogue was married to Mr. Edmund A. Pickett of Huelo, Maui.

Wilcox (A.).—Mr. Gaylord Wilcox was Colonel of the National Guards of Kauai.

The Work Committee of the Mokulani Club, of which Miss Elsie Wilcox is head, has taken up Food Conservation as its program for the year, and is pushing it forward with earnestness and success. Miss Wilcox has sent for the Picture-Pillar a good photograph of her Uncle Edward Wilcox of Winstead, Conn.; also excellent copies of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wilcox, taken at the ages of twenty-eight and twenty, and a good reprint of her grandmother's photograph.

Mrs. H. D. Sloggett is one of the busy Red Cross workers on Kauai.

ADOPTED COUSINS.

Adams—Rev. John Q. Adams is chairman of Auburn, N. Y., "Four-Minute Men."

Alger—Mrs. F. C. Alger (Miss Annie Van Anglen) writes, "We are wintering in the South for the seventh season and enjoying it. If it were not such a great distance we should like to winter a part of the time in Dear Hawaii. . . I was shocked to hear of the passing away of Mrs. Lowrey. She was a woman of good works. The community will miss her greatly. With best wishes to the Cousins."

Atwater—The marriage of Miss Dora Atwater to Mr. James Cunningham Wallace, took place in Salvador, Central America, on board the steamer on which her mother and sister were passengers, the Captain reading the service. William Spencer Bown was located at Fort Omaha, Omaha, Nebraska, in the aerological department as an instructor, but was recently transferred from Fort Omaha to an aviation camp at Waco, Texas. Before beginning instruction work at the latter camp he was detailed to go to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, to establish a training station along aerological lines. Thus far his work has been that of an instructor engaged in lecturing, particularly on meteorology, which treats of the phenomena of the atmosphere. At present Lieutenant Bowen's wife and young daughter are with him, but they expect to visit Honolulu soon, arriving here about May 20.

Cox—Mrs. Isaac M. Cox writes, "We have greatly enjoyed the Annual Rep. so fully and finely written up." The name of the little grandson was incorrectly given last year. The correct name is Doak Cary Cox. The baby's father, Joal Bean Cox, was a civil engineer on Maui, but is now en route to France in the Army Reconstruction Service under the Red Cross.

Crawford—Mrs. Harriet Sturges Crawford of Pasadena, after giving changes of address for herself and sister, Mrs. Sturgeon, and thanks for the Report, says, "I am so glad, in this way to keep up with Island news—to know what my dear old schoolmates and friends of childhood's days are doing. I want now to tell you that a son of mine, David Livingstone Crawford, has gone to teach in your College of Hawaii, to take the place of Prof. Illingsby. I want my son and his wife to know my friends of olden days—the 'best people' in Honolulu."

Delaporte—Rev. Ph. A. Delaporte, whose present work is referred to elsewhere, writes from 510 Cedar St., Muscatine, Iowa: "Mrs. Delaporte, Paul, Augusta, Mabel and myself send Christian love to all the Cousins, again thanking them for their kindness to us and our work in the past."

Gulick—Mrs. Sarepta Gulick reached her eightieth milestone on March 23d and many kamaainas called to offer congratulations and good wishes. With her cheery presence, and good health, she seems young still.

Hosmer—Mr. Frank A. Hosmer sends his return card from 22 North Prospect St., Amherst, Mass.

Kimball—Mrs. Lottie M. Manross Kimball, who writes that she still retains her aloha for this beautiful land and good people and is proud to be even an "adopted Cousin," sends the following clipping from Orange, Mass.:

"Mr. and Mrs. James D. Kimball, well known residents of Orange, have four boys in the service. Their fourth son, Parker Kimball, who is a student at Amherst College, has enlisted in the Aviation Department and is now awaiting a call. Newton Kimball is a Lieut. of Artillery in France. J. Richard Kimball is at Camp Devans and Lincoln Kimball is in the navy. Newton and Richard are graduates of Amherst College and while there were prominent in athletics. Lewers—Mr. Will. H. Lewers returned to Honolulu in the summer, accompanying his father and mother who had been on a visit on the mainland.

Lowrey—Mrs. F. J. Lowrey is greatly missed, for she left us so unexpectedly while apparently in the zenith of health and usefulness. She was always a tireless worker and she dared enter provinces usually ruled by men alone. Her feminine touch has aided greatly in Civic Service, in City Planning, and in the beautification of Honolulu through the Outdoor Circle. Her great mother-heart went out to the soldier-boys and they will miss her, too, everywhere.

F. D. Lowrey, son of F. J. Lowrey, is one of the three young men recently elected as trustees of the Hawaiian Board. In August a little daughter—Kathleen Lowrey—arrived at this home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Lowrey, on Feb. 18, 1918, welcomed a little daughter, Cherilla Storrs Lowrey.

Mr. Alan Lowrey took a course at the Mass. Institute of Technology in Boston to fit himself for the flying corps. He was enrolled in the Aviation Section of the Naval Reserve, was sent to the officers' training camp at the Presidio, Cal., thence to Pensacola, Fla., and has now received his commission as Aviator Pilot.

President of the Union Missionary of the 1st Presbyterian Church of Howell, Mich., is teacher of the Young Woman's Bible Class, is in Westminster Guild and Church Aid Society. Her message to the Cousins is, "The Annual Report is always welcome and brings most interesting messages. Though there is sadness mingled with the joy, it is inspiring to know that so many are in the midst of the stirring events of the present, striving for the kingdom of God on earth." Miss Norton's nephew, Charles Bailey Norton, is Lieut. in the Aviation Corps, U. S. A., in charge of Brooks Field, San Antonio, Texas, and the husband of her niece is in the Construction Department of the U. S. Navy in Washington, D. C.

Pitman.—Mr. Benj. F. Pitman visited Hawaii a year ago, after being absent fifty years and was received as an alii because of his descent from the highest chief serving Kamehameha the Great. Mr. Pitman was an old friend of Queen Liliuokalani, and on the death of the Queen sent a telegram of sympathy to Hawaii.

Potter.—Miss S. M. Potter writes, "I think I have lived about as many years as any of you Cousins—88 years. You ask for family war news. The Sixties are fresh in my mind. While as nothing to this the sacrifice to me was greater. But we cannot think of ourselves while the distress is world-wide. We in our quiet little town are greatly stirred; large shipyards; camps on West and East of us; all our best young men gone; town filled with strangers—many more than can be accommodated. So you can imagine we are a very busy people, but all are working with a will and praying God that in his own good time he may bring peace to this disturbed world."

Scudder.—We rejoice with Dr. and Mrs. Doremus Scudder in the arrival of a little daughter, Katherine Scudder, born in Tokyo Nov. 9th, 1917.

Severance.—A return card from Claude M. Severance with thanks for the report, states the fact that he has a brother living in Honolulu. Mr. Severance is tutoring in Greek and Ancient History and Mrs. Severance, who is a superb soprano singer, is giving lessons in vocal culture. Claude, 15 years old, has entered High School and is studying Spanish. Walter Frear Severance, 12½ years, is in the 8th grade. Both are Boy Scouts.

Sielcken.—News has been received of the death of Hermann Sieleken in Baden Baden, Germany. Mr. Sieleken, many times a millionaire and called the "Coffee King," was 72 years old and visited the Islands many years ago. On Oct. 7, 1913, he married Mrs. Clara Isenberg Wendroth, then a widow with two children. Mrs. Sielehen is now living in Switzerland.

Thrum.—Mr. Thomas G. Thrum celebrated, in May, his seventy-fifth birthday. In April he finished the manuscript of his new book, "Ancient Hawaiian Mythology," which represents a lifetime of study and research in the ethnological field, and covers the entire mythological and legendary traditions of the Hawaiian race.

Mr. Thrum was selected by the Bishop Museum as editor of Fornander's works which have lain in manuscript form since the death of the author in 1887. It is being published in the original language with the translation. Of these two books, finished by Mr. Thrum at the age of seventy-five, the Cousins feel very proud, as well as of the valuable history by Rev. O. H. Gulick, finished at the age of eighty-seven years.

Thwing.—Rev. E. W. Thwing is still busy fighting the illicit sale of opium in China.

Tuthill.—Mrs. Beulah Logan Tuthill is President of the Illinois Branch of the Woman's Board of Missions of the Interior at 39-49 Ellis Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Walsh.—Edward M. Walsh took the Aviation course and was killed by a collision between flying machines while in the air at San Diego, Cal. We knew well Mr. Walsh's father and mother—Mrs. Julie Beckwith Walsh—and, though the young people have always resided on the mainland, we claim Mr. Walsh as one of the first of our hero band to sacrifice his life for world democracy.

Waterhouse.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. P. Waterhouse are at Singapore. Their children are at school in the States, Frederick at Culver Military Academy, Indiana. The children of Dr. Waterhouse are at Punahou.

Mrs. Elizabeth Waterhouse with Miss Pinder, occupies the old home with four of her children within call, Mr. and Mrs. Walker (Margaret) having built next door. Elsie (Mrs. Stubbs) has spent much time in her brother John's family while Mrs. John visited her mother. Mrs. Eleanor Isenberg has another little daughter, Ursula. Mr. and Mrs. George Waterhouse have developed the rare faculty of holding a large class of Intermediate Department boys in Central Union S. S. Possibly a consecrated automobile has somewhat to do with it.

IN MEMORIAM.

On the 24th of November, 1917, George Shepard Bond, oldest son of the late Rev. Elias Bond, entered into rest, passing away quietly with a smile, as though he recognized some familiar face when the portals opened to let him pass into the life beyond. His was a kindly, generous nature, as testified to in the following extracts from letters of those who had known him:

"I miss his frequent letters with the many items of interest concerning Kohala people and events. My greatest regret is that I could not have shown him my sincere appreciation of his faithful friendship and kindly thought for me during the six years in Kohala, and since then, when so many papers, magazines and letters have come from him. How eagerly we watched for his coming on mail days! No storm was too severe for him when there was hope of letters to bring for us, and he never considered his own comfort in the least when he saw an opportunity of serving others and adding to their comfort. He was generous to a fault also, and spent freely for gifts for his friends. But during the past few months he had mentioned his weakness and failing eyesight many times, so I could only be thankful when I knew of his release from the 'worn-out fetter which the soul had broken and thrown away', as Longfellow so beautifully expressed it."

"The teachers at the Seminary in the early eighties had great reason to remember his kindness. As his father exercised a parental care of the school, so the son manifested a brotherly interest. He it was who brought the weekly mail, as well as the monthly mail from 'the Coast.' He kept us supplied with choice fruit and was ready to help in any way, from replacing broken window glass to escorting the horseback riders home from evening service at the church or a social at a distant plantation."

C. S. B.

Levi Tenney Chamberlain entered into the larger life, Sept. 6, 1917, at the home of his nephew, W. W. Chamberlain, Spencer St., Honolulu.

He was the youngest and last surviving son of Levi Chamberlain, who came to these Islands with the second party of missionaries, arriving in Honolulu April 27, 1823. He was born at the old Chamberlain house at Kawaihau, April 30, 1837, and was over eighty years of age at his death.

Mr. Chamberlain was employed at the custom house as accountant for a number of years; later as accountant for John Thomas Waterhouse, Sr., in the mercantile business on Queen St., and also in the same capacity for Castle & Cooke. He and his brother, Warren Chamberlain, were early pioneers in the sugar industry at Waialua. He was a very faithful attendant at church services, at Kawaiahao, and showed great Christian patience and fortitude under affliction.

The funeral service was held Sept. 7th, Rev. Henry P. Judd officiating, and the remains were interred in the family plot in the Mission Cemetery.

He left surviving him, the following nieces and nephews: F. S. Lyman, Jr., of Waimea, Oahu; Dr. Francis A. Lyman of Waimea, Kauai; Ellen G. and Levi C. Lyman of Hilo; Ernest E. Lyman of Honolulu; Mrs. Wm. McCluskey of Lihue, Kauai; Wm. J. Forbes, Maria R. and Harriet G. Forbes of Honolulu; Mrs. W. O. Aiken of Makawao, Maui; John E. Chamberlain of Oregon; Rev. H. W. Chamberlain of Hastings, Mich.; Mrs. Helen C. Ives of Pecatonica, Ill., and W. W. Chamberlain of Honolulu.

W. W. C.

Mrs. Church

Frances A. Lord was born in Randolph, Ohio, in 1840. Her collegiate course was at Oberlin, Ohio, graduating from that institution in the class of 1863. In 1865 she married Edward Payson Church, and, coming to Honolulu with him, they filled the places at Punahou of Principal and Matron, W. D. Alexander being President of the institution at the time.

They were thus associated with Punahou for a period of about ten years.

Returning to the States they engaged with an institution for Deaf, Dumb and Blind inmates at Lansing, Michigan.

Mr. Church died in 1901 while they were in Michigan.

Two sons, Albert and Charles, were born to them in Honolulu, in 1868 and 1870 respectively, and both Dr. Albert Church and his brother were married during the year 1899. Mrs. Church's only daughter, Mrs. Louise Marion Conklin, died in 1909, and about that time a beloved grandchild was taken home, leaving in 1910, two sons and six grand-children, two in the family of each of her children.

I. S. W.

Mrs. C. M. Hyde

Mrs. Mary Knight Hyde, after a short illness in Ware, Mass., passed to her heavenly home on Dec. 14, 1917. She was born Aug. 6, 1840, the youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ebenezer Knight of Brimfield, Mass., and was prominent in society and church work.

On Oct. 10, 1865, she married Rev. Charles M. Hyde, the young minister of that place, and remained as pastor's wife in the town of her birth till 1870, when Dr. Hyde was called to the Center Congregational Church in Haverhill, Mass., where they remained for another five years.

Dr. Hyde was then sent by the American Board of Missions to take charge of the theological training school at Honolulu, Hawaii, and they arrived, with their two little boys and Mrs. Hyde's mother and sister, in June, 1877. Mrs. Hyde entered, with all her innate energy, into her husband's busy life, teaching the wives of the students in the Pacific Institute, organizing the Lima Kokua, a missionary society, in Kawaiahao Seminary, aiding in the establishment of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Society and becoming its president, acting as vice-president of the Portuguese Charitable Association, teaching in the first Chinese and Japanese Sunday schools and being for twelve years president of the Woman's Board of Missions for the Pacific Islands. Here her ability was especially shown—her rare executive power, her literary ability, her punctuality, her courteous attention to visitors, her dignified bearing, her untiring energy and her whole-souled consecration to the work combining to make it the success it was.

Her home was a model of neatness and she was given to hospitality, welcoming new teachers on their way to other islands and entertaining lonely missionaries as they came and went to Micronesia. She took into her heart and home our Cousin Irene Ii, who became to her as an own daughter.

She afterward wrote of the Woman's Board, "No work of my life was so delightful, so satisfying, so rich in personal experience, so full of Christian friendship and companionship as those twelve years of my official connection as President of the Woman's Board."

Soon after the death of Dr. Hyde in 1899, Mrs. Hyde returned to Ware, Mass., to be near her son Henry, and here she spent the remaining years of her life, fruitful in good works, and garnered at last a sheaf fully ripe for the harvest.

Her ashes were lovingly brought to Honolulu and deposited by the side of her husband and her mother and sister, in the land she loved so well.

Rev. Hans Isenberg

Rev. Hans Isenberg passed away at the Queen's Hospital January 5th, 1918.

He was born in Meine, Hanover, on October 5th, 1855. His edu-education began in a village school from which he went to the Celle gymnasium, graduating with honors in 1875. After a year at the University of Leipzig he went to the University of Goettigen, where he remained for two and a half years. While there he took his year in the army, after which he entered the theological Institute of Loccum, where he took his final examinations and accepted a call to a Lutheran church in the Harz mountains.

In 1883 he had married Dora Rice Isenberg; and in 1886 they visited the Hawaiian Islands and Mr. Isenberg became pastor of the German church in Lihue, Kauai. He also took charge of the school for German children there, many of the plantation laborers being from Germany. He was a model pastor, guiding his flock by his wise counsels and warm-hearted sympathy. Nor did he confine his efforts to those of his own church but wherever there was sickness or trouble no matter what the nationality or creed Mr. Isenberg was always the first to offer sympathy and help. Until the Lutheran church in Honolulu had a pastor Mr. Isenberg came over once a month and held a service for his countrymen here.

He became a naturalized American citizen in 1905 and was interested in a variety of community matters, especially on Kauai, where his name will be ever held in loving reverence.

E. B. W.

Mrs. F. J. Lowrey

The morning of January 9th the entire community was shocked and saddened with the word that Mrs. F. J. Lowrey had been suddenly taken. There had been no premonitory illness, she had been about with her cheery smile and seemed in usual health and vigor for days previously. It did not seem as if one so full of helpful energy and fruitful suggestions could be taken. But alas! it proved too true, and the great throngs who attended the memorial exercises at the beautiful home, always thrown open for use where the use might benefit others, testified to the love and respect felt for her by all.

Who can forget the young, earnest girl who came down to Hawaii, to give her time and best efforts to solving the question of how to educate and train the Hawaiian girl? She came as a teacher for Kawaiahao Seminary in the early eighties. There the girls all loved her at once. Then she was called to Punahou and taught in the Punahou Preparatory School in 1882 and 1883, in the old Armstrong home. Her time there was a very happy one, both for herself and her pupils, among whom were many of our Cousins, Judd, Cooke, Alexander, Chamberlain, Hopper, Hyde, Damon, Atherton, Baldwin, Lyons, Rice, Waterhouse, Dillingham—all will recall with pleasure, probably, the memory of their school days with her. Central Union Church found in her a strong and sympathetic support in its various branches of work, people feeling always her cordial personality and sincere interest.

In January, 1884, Cherrie Storrs was married to Mr. Frederick J. Lowrey and so took up her new line of life, first in the training of her own family; then, as they developed into maturity, she continued in a course of doing for others in a public way, and put in years of fruitful work in all sorts of betterment projects. What she did as leader of The Outdoor Circle to make Honolulu a more beautiful and better place to live in, is familiar history to us all. But we shall never know the half of what she really accomplished. Only her immediate friends and family knew of how she arose early in the morning to go off to some street where she had planned improvements, and, oftentimes with her own hands, planted trees, or nursed those already set out, and in many other ways attended personally to the development of the plans so carefully made and nursed into life. The city shows the results of her work and has become, because of her, a better place to live in. If she could only have lived longer there can be no doubt that Honolulu and the Islands would have been the better for it. But now we can only ask blindly, "Why was she not spared?" "Why was not someone else, of those who cumber the earth, taken in her stead?" We can only bow in humility because we may not know the immutable plans of One higher than we. But we need not mourn uselessly, for we have her example and the record of a beautiful life to make life better for us all.

W. R. C.

Francis Anderson Lyman, son of Hon. F. S. Lyman of Hilo, and his wife Isabella Chamberlain Lyman, was born in the Old Chamberlain House, Honolulu, on May 7, 1863, and was a twin brother of Mr. Fred. S. Lyman. His boyhood was spent at Hilo, his early education received at Punahou and finished at Western Reserve College, Ohio, where he graduated in 1885. He then went to Rush Medical School, Chicago. Here he graduated with highest honors and became hospital interne at the Presbyterian Hospital of Chicago, where he remained for two years. He was then appointed superintendent of the Wisconsin State Insane Asylum, which position he held for nine years. While there he married Miss Mamie A. Aldrich of Mt. Carmel, Ill. In 1895 he located in Madison, Wis., where for years he conducted an extensive general practice besides being city and county physician. In the interest of family health he returned to the Islands and in 1913 located at Waimea, Kauai, where he remained till his death.

Dr. Lyman had been working hard and losing weight, and had set Oct. 21st as the date when he would reach his old home at Hilo for a vacation, but on that day he entered into his Heavenly rest.

The Lihue Garden Island speaks of him as "A physician of ability, a man of quiet, unassuming disposition, sterling integrity, tender heart and kindly sympathy. Ever ready to alleviate suffering he devoted himself to the profession which was his life. Even in his subconscious state his every thought was to bind up the wounds and sufferings of others, with no thought of self."

Rev. J. M. Lydgate had charge of the funeral services at Waimea. The casket was placed on the front lawn under beautiful trees overlooking the valley and ocean, and there friends and plantation laborers brought their offerings of flowers and stood in groups, singing the beautiful hymns, "Lead, Kindly Light," and "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty."

In Honolulu the remains were taken in charge by the Masons, and later the ashes were accompanied to Hilo by his bereaved wife and two sons, Francis Lyman of Makaweli plantation and Howard, a student at Punahou, and by his brothers.

John Davis Paris, Jr.

The spirit of John Davis Paris, Jr., took its upward flight the evening of January 17th. He was the only son of Rev. John Davis and Mary Carpenter Paris, and was born at Kaawaloa, Kona, Hawaii, March 30th, 1854.

His boyhood was spent at home, and he received his early education from his parents. In 1870, he entered Oahu College and, after four years of study, returned home and went into ranching. August 25th, 1880, he married Miss Hannah Johnson. In 1886, he accepted the position of manager of Haleakala Ranch, and moved to Maui with his wife and two children, but soon gave up the position, and returned to Kona, on account of his mother's failing health.

He served as representative under the Monarchy, and was school agent in Kona for a number of years. He was a staunch Republican, a member of the Reform Party; Territorial senator, 1901-1905; vice-president of the Senate, 1903-1905; and was instrumental in getting appropriations made for numerous public improvements on Hawaii.

He had long been treasurer of the Kahikolu church at Kealakekua, of which he was a regular attendant, and liberal contributor toward the pastor's salary and all church offerings.

"Makua no ka lehulehu" was his favorite appellation among the Hawaiians. His was a noble, generous heart ever ready to render help or sympathy to those in need, regardless of race or creed. Many of his benevolences were best known only to himself and the recipients.

He was a self-made man, unostentatious, a wise counselor, honest in all his dealings, and always had a most decided aversion to flattery. He had long been a martyr to rheumatism, resulting from a terrible fall into a lava pit when after cattle. During the latter part of 1917, he had suffered agonies from neuritis and suddenly, but quietly, his spirit passed beyond the veil.

"Just beyond the silent river,
Over on the other shore,
There is resting, happy resting
For the weary, evermore.

"In that golden, sunny region
There will be no throb of pain,
And the links that here are broken
We shall find in bliss again."

E. H. P.

Mr. Jonathan Shaw was born in Londonderry, Ireland, in 1847. His parents died while he was very young and he lived there with an uncle. When he was 18 he came to the United States, where he joined his two brothers and sister, who were homesteading land in Minnesota. Later he went to San Francisco, where he was in the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company with Mr. J. B. Roberts. It was while he was in San Francisco that he did a great deal of church work with a group of young men who were connected with Calvary church.

In 1881 he came to Honolulu and worked for J. T. Waterhouse. It was at this time that he married Elizabeth Delia Bishop, a daughter of one of the early missionaries. Then for nine years he acted as tax assessor and later sixteen years for Oahu College, as assistant treasurer.

Mr. Shaw was well known to the members of Central Union Church first in the capacity of usher and later as treasurer of the church.

In the spring of 1917 he and his wife made a visit to his brothers in Minnesota. On this trip he was taken sick, from which illness he never recovered. He died June, 1917. He left a wife and three daughters, Ruth C. Shaw, Jessie Shaw Fisher, and Margaret F. Shaw.

M. F. S.

Miss Julia Eleanora Snow entered into rest March 7, 1918. She was born in New England, one of a family of seven, having five brothers and one sister.

Miss Snow came to Honolulu in 1886 as a teacher. She taught first in the Punahou Preparatory School, then held in the old Armstrong House on Beretania St., where she left her impress on the lives of many of our present business men and matrons. She next taught in the Chinese Mission, and afterward, for twenty-five years, she faithfully served her country by training the children of the public schools of Honolulu. For this service, in 1917, she received a pension, being one of the first three so honored. As a teacher she was painstakingly exact, faithful and loving.

Miss Snow joined Central Union Church in 1887, and for thirty years was a worker in the Bible-school. Her plump, neat figure, and fair, smiling face crowned with locks as white as snow seemed a part of the school, and oh, how she loved the service!

An atmosphere of cheer accompanied her, her smile was like sunshine, and under her dainty touch tangled things straightened themselves and disorder vanished. To the shut-ins she went as an angel of mercy with flowers, papers, books and bits of news. In the house of mourning her step was light, her fingers deft and her words full of comfort; and to her own personal friends, whom she loved with an intensity of devotion, her little thoughtful deeds of kindness and dainty gifts carried with them always her own personality. Among friends of her early days in Honolulu were Mrs. Cherrie Storrs Lowrey, whose sudden departure was "such a terrible blow" and no doubt hastened her death, and Mrs. "Millie Beckwith" Hair, who, as Miss Snow herself wrote, "has taken me into her home and treats me as a sister." Mrs. Hair says, "Everybody was kind, and the three months she was with us were happy ones except that she was 'so tired.' She was a true, conscientious Christian—none truer or kinder. I was so glad to help her when she needed me. Next to Mrs. Lowrey's I think this was home more than any other place. One wiser than ourselves knew best and took our dear friend away before she could feel the weakness and loneliness of old age. She, dear, sweet, gentle Christian gentlewoman, was ready to go but she did not want to linger long. She just slipped away quietly and lay with a sweet smile on her face as I said good-bye to her after she fell asleep."

And in line with all the other tokens of love, Mrs. Irene Ii Holloway sent for the precious body and had the ashes interred by the side of her dear friends, Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Hyde.

Miss Henrietta M. Speer passed away at Washington, Pa., April 24th, 1916.

She, with two older brothers—John, who was taken in his youth, and James, who died at Pasadena in 1900,—were made members of the Hawaiian Mission Children's Society in 1856 while attending Punahou school. They came here from China with their parents, returning missionaries. How long they remained here we do not know. In 1860 they were with their father, then pastor of a church in Hudson, Wis. In 1870 they were in Philadelphia, and again we lost trace of them till 1911, since which time Miss Speer has been located at Washington, Pa. Recently a note to the treasurer arrived from Mrs. Elizabeth B. Speer, who says, "My three children, who were members of the Cousins' Society, are now in the heavenly home, and I, their mother, am waiting, at the age of ninety-one, to join them and my husband."

Edward M. Walsh took aviation course and was killed by a collision between flying machines while in the air at San Diego, Cal.

Only this brief record has reached us. Edward Maurice Walsh was born at Paia, Maui, March 4, 1885, the son of Edward M. Walsh and Julie Beckwith Walsh. Soon after his mother's death, which occurred in June, 1887, the father with his two little children removed to Oakland, Cal., where they have since resided.

Mr. Edward Maurice Walsh was married Jan. 25th, 1910, in Oakland, to Miss Elsie J. Campbell, and they have made their home in that city.

Mrs. Frances Adelaide Van Meter Wilcox, the widow of our Cousin. Charles Hart Wilcox, died in Berkeley, Cal., on the 7th of November, 1917. Mrs. Wilcox's parents were among the early settlers of Oroville, Cal. After her marriage to Mr. Wilcox they made their home there until his death in 1888, when she moved with her family to Oakland, and in that vicinity she remained until her death. During the last years of her life she was an invalid. She is survived by four children, Charles Hart Wilcox of Oakland, Norton Edward Wilcox, Mrs. Herbert C. Cheek of Berkeley, and Mrs. Galen M. Fisher of Japan.

E. H. W.

Since the closing of the year's record there have gone from our midst three of the older generation of Cousins whose lives have been a blessing and an inspiration:

James Bicknell Castle, at Honolulu, April 5, 1918.

Benjamin Franklin Dillingham, at Honolulu, April 7, 1918.

Frederick Swartz Lyman, at Hilo, April 14, 1918.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. W. ANDREWS,

Secretary.

CHARTER OF INCORPORATION.

To all to whom these presents shall come, I, Alexander J. Campbell, Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii, send greeting:

Whereas, Clarence Hyde Cooke, President, Albert Francis Judd, Vice-President, Maria Sheeley Andrews, Secretary, Robert Wilson Andrews, Recorder, and Lyle Alexander Dickey, Treasurer of an association known as The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society, have in behalf and by authority of the said association made application to me, as Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii, to grant the said association a charter of incorporation under the corporate name of The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society for the purposes of perpetuating the memory of the missionary fathers and mothers who brought Christianity to these Islands, of promoting union among its members, of cultivating in them an active missionary spirit, stirring them up to good deeds and of assisting in the support of Christian work.

Now, therefore, know ye that I, the said Alexander J. Campbell, as such Treasurer aforesaid, and by and with the consent of the Governor of the Territory and in the exercise and execution of every power and authority in any wise enabling me in this behalf, do hereby constitute the members of the said association a body corporate under the name of The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society for the term of fifty years for the purposes aforesaid with power by that name in their corporate capacity to sue and be sued, to adopt and use a seal and the same to alter at pleasure, to take, purchase, receive, hold, sell and convey such real and personal estate as the purposes of the corporation shall require, not exceeding in the whole sum the value of $100,000.00 and to mortgage the same to secure any debt of the corporation. Its location shall be in said Honolulu. It shall have power to make By-Laws for the management of its property, the election and removal of its officers and members and the regulation of its affairs, and such By-Laws from time to time to repeal, alter or amend, but the Constitution and the By-Laws heretofore adopted by the said association shall be the By-Laws of the said corporation until the same shall have been repealed, altered or amended with the exception of Articles 1, 2, and 10 of said constitution.

There shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer of the corporation, upon any one of whom service of process may be made, whose names and residences and also the

By-Laws of the corporation shall be filed in the Office of the Treasurer of the Territory.

No stock shall be issued nor dividends paid by the corporation.

The members of the said association and such other persons as shall from time to time be elected as members shall be members of the corporation and its officers shall be the same persons who are now the officers of the said association until otherwise provided by the corporation.

The property of the said corporation shall alone be liable for payment of its debts and liabilities.

In witness whereof I hereby set my hand and official seal this 10th day of August, A. D. 1907.

(Signed) A. J. CAMPBELL,
Treasurer Territory of Hawaii.

I hereby consent to the granting of the foregoing Charter this 14th day of August, A. D. 1907

(Signed) G. R. CARTER,
Governor of Hawaii.

LIFE MEMBERS OF THE HAWAIIAN MISSION CHILDREN'S SOCIETY, 1918.

SYMBOLS IN THE LIST OF MEMBERS.

Original members of the Society, whether children of missionaries or elect members, have their names printed in the usual manner. The names of their children are preceded by one star, and those of children's children by two stars.

In many cases the name is preceded by a symbol in the margin, which denotes the person's missionary parentage or ancestry; and the key to the symbols is the list below, in which the missionary names are given, but no titles.

 Where the residence of a husband is given, that of the wife, in the next line, is the same.
